HIGH CARAT CANARY-YELLOW DIAMONDS: THE ULTIMATE IN LUXURIOUS MASTERPIECES

The two diamonds on Silhouette's limited-edition models in the Atelier Collection are as yellow and radiant as the sun. These rare gems adorn the Art Éternel model. Around the world, only eight true lovers of luxury will have the pleasure of owning one of these works of art.

As unique as one of the world's rarest diamonds

This 'Haute Joaillerie' collection is a dazzling companion to haute couture apparel and is enchanted by precious yellow stones. A real stand-out in this category is the limited-edition Art Éternel: the jewel-encrusted temples feature two tear-shaped canary diamonds. These individually set gems boast a powerful, canary-yellow glow — an absolute rarity in the world of unprocessed, natural gemstones. 60 flawless, brilliant-cut diamonds lend their decorative lustre to this extraordinary collection.

Hand-crafted artistry and design

Each model in the Silhouette Atelier Collection is hand-crafted by passionate goldsmiths and stone setters in Linz, Austria. True splendour and masterful craftsmanship reach their pinnacle in the new Art Éternel for women, inspired by the theme 'Infinity'. Here, the infinity symbol embodies everlasting luxury. The wearer can choose between settings in 18-carat yellow, white or pink gold. The result is a timeless accessory, dedicated to lovers of the high life. After all, true connoisseurs accentuate their personality with their individuality. Just ask one of our customers in Japan who was immediately enchanted by this impressive collection and its sparkling, sunshine jewels. She is one of just a few women around the world who will enjoy her own made-to-measure model from this limited-edition collection. Silhouette is proud to be delivering this unique piece of jewellery to her in mid-July 2018.
