Audiobook Group Discussion Questions

Use these questions to help spark conversations, share opinions and explore different perspectives on the audiobooks you've listened to:

First Impressions

- Did the opening chapter capture your attention?
- Did you enjoy the audiobook overall? What did you particularly like or dislike?
- Was this the type of audiobook you'd usually choose – and if not, were you pleasantly surprised?

Characters and Setting

- What were your first impressions of the main character?
- Which character did you find the most interesting, likeable or frustrating?
- How vividly did the author bring the characters and setting to life? Could you picture the people and places as you listened?
- Did the actions of the characters seem plausible? Were there any moments when you disagreed with what they did?

The Plot

- Did you find the story predictable or unpredictable?
- Were there any moments that particularly surprised or moved you?
- Who would you cast to the main roles in a movie or TV version?
- Did you find the ending satisfying? If so, why? If not, why not, and how would you change it?

Deeper thoughts

- Did the audiobook introduce you to any new ideas, experiences or perspectives?
- Has anything in the story stayed with you since you finished listening?

Author and Narrator

- Have you listened to other audiobooks by this author? How does this one compare?
- Has this audiobook inspired you to explore more of the author's work?
- What did you think of this narrator? Would you listen to more of their audiobooks?
- If you could ask the author one question, what would it be?
