

Global Executive MBA

Global Careers Report

Contents

- 4 Global connections
- 6 Global career development
- 8 Salary
- 10 Global network

“We understand Executive MBA students are often pursuing personal and diverse goals. Whether your aim is to move further up the ladder, start your own business, or enhance your knowledge and skills, we’re here to support you every step of the way with practical and personalized guidance.

Every year, our international team of Executive Career Coaches guide hundreds of executives, all at different stages in their careers, into the next phase of their career journey. Alongside the practical knowledge and skills you’ll learn during your EMBA, we’re here to equip you with career management skills that will last a lifetime.

Whatever your career goals, Hult helps you reach your fullest potential.”

Katharine Boshkoff

Katharine Boshkoff
Vice President
Global Career Development

Highlights

53rd best Executive MBA worldwide

The Economist (2018)

15th for number of industry sectors represented in class

The Economist (2018)

$159,700
Average Executive MBA salary 3 months
after graduation

46% Salary increase one year after graduation

The Economist (2018)

8% of Hult graduates started their own company

Based on graduating class of 2017

83% of students say the skills learned during the program have taken their career to the next level

Based on GMAC Alumni
Survey 2017

Hult's global connections

Hult helps Executive MBA students grow their professional networks through connecting them with employers, inviting top global companies to campus, and embedding companies' current business challenges directly into the curriculum.

Who are the top 15 employers of Hult graduates globally?

- | | | | |
|-------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. PwC | 5. EF Education First | 9. Boston Consulting Group | 12. Uber |
| 2. KPMG | 6. Accenture | 10. L'Oréal | 13. Morgan Stanley |
| 3. EY | 7. Bank of America | 11. Salesforce | 14. Porsche |
| 4. Deloitte | 8. Amazon | 15. BASF | |

Leading employers of the Class of 2017 by campus

Hult Boston	Hult San Francisco	Hult London	Hult Dubai
Amazon	Accenture	Accenture	3M
Bank of America	Apple	Amazon	ABB
Bank of China	Deloitte	Applied Blockchain	Audi Volkswagen
BASF	Havas Media	Banco de Credito del Peru	British American Tobacco
Boston Consulting Group	IDEO	Daimler	Bulgary
Deloitte	KPMG	Deloitte	Capgemini
Grey Advertising Global	Lexus	EF Education First	EY
JP Morgan Chase & Co.	Lululemon	Google	Hilti
L.L.Bean	Macy's	GlaxoSmithKline	Hilton
L'Oréal	Nordstrom	KPMG	KPMG
McKinsey	Porsche	Kraft Heinz	Porsche
Morgan Stanley	PwC	PwC	Procter & Gamble
PayPal	Salesforce	Salesforce	SAP
Sephora	Sixt	Uber	Sumitomo Mitsui Finance & Leasing Co., Ltd.
Toyota	Visa	UNICEF

Based on Hult class of 2017 graduates

The EMBA sharpened Frank's skills and gave him a more global perspective on business.

"The program is honestly life changing. I have come out with a different, more global world view along with a deep set of modern, innovative business skills required for the next generation of global success and innovation."

Frank Miller
American
CTO, Ciena EMEA
Class of 2016

Wei worked at Saatchi & Saatchi before co-founding OtherWorld Entertainment. Getting her EMBA has helped her grow her business and expand into new markets.

"The ability to attend different campuses and Hult's global reputation were very important to me. Hult matched my aims to grow my business internationally, and has helped me to achieve this goal to expand—for example, I've just signed an agreement with a Chinese film company to take care of some of its American business."

Wei Chen
Chinese
Co-Founder, OtherWorld Entertainment
Class of 2018

Just two months after completing the EMBA, Nicolaas was recruited by Foster Clark Products for a more senior Regional Manager role. He is now on track to begin running the whole of Asia for them.

"Hult has given me the right tools, knowledge, and the ability to round out my soft skills so that I could interact with the board of directors and other company leaders. I am much more thoughtful and mature in my approach towards business, and it's because of this that I have been able to gain more senior roles."

Nicolaas Fourie
South African
Regional Commercial Manager (Middle East), Foster Clark Products
Class of 2016

Continuous career development

Our dedicated career development teams work one-on-one with students to provide personalized career support and connect them with Hult's global network of employers. Here are a few snapshots of events on campus:

Market research and decision-making

Senior executives from Twitter and Nielsen held a lively panel debate and Q&A to explore the modern role of market research in global business. A networking session between students and panel followed. Hosted by Hult London.

Building key recruiter connections

Panelists from leading regional search firms shared market insights with students. Top tips on becoming an in-demand candidate preceded networking and informal interviews. Hosted by Hult Dubai.

Networking the room like a rockstar

Heather White, leading networking and personal brand expert, hosted an interactive networking skills workshop followed by a networking session with corporate guests and alumni. Hosted by Hult London.

83% of students say the skills learned on the Executive MBA have taken their career to the next level

Based on GMAC Alumni Survey 2017

Hult supports your global career before, during, and after you studies

Increase your net worth

Whether you want to advance at your current company, change roles, or start your own business, Hult has a proven track record for setting up students for professional success after graduation.

68%

of students have been promoted or started their own company since graduation

The Economist (2018)

14th

for percentage increase of Pre-EMBA Salary, one year after graduation

The Economist (2018)

$159,700

Average Executive MBA graduate starting salary

$218,400

Average EMBA salary three years after graduation

Based on GMAC Alumni survey. PPP adjusted (2017)

Cross sample of Executive MBA salary increases after one year (%)

Data taken from The Economist Executive MBA Ranking (2015)

“When I applied for my current position, one of the advantages I had over other candidates was that I had an Executive MBA—the CEO wanted to hire someone who had a rounded skill set for managing a company, whilst also being able to strategically develop the business.”

Lilian G. Molina
 Belizean
 General Manager, System in Motion
 Class of 2016

Connect to a truly global alumni network

Number of Hult alumni by country of citizenship

“Many of my professors have worked in the business world, and the knowledge they bring to the classroom is immense. It’s not just academic knowledge, it’s an understanding of how business concepts, methodologies, and frameworks apply in real life. Their insight has exceeded my expectation in every course.”

Jorge Fonseca
Portuguese
Class of 2017

11

Average years of work experience of our Executive MBA students

37+

Average age of our Executive MBA students

1 out of 3

Hult Executive MBA students are female

95%

of alumni would recruit Hult Executive MBA graduates

175+

Countries in which Hult alumni work

21,000+

Hult alumni worldwide

70+

Countries with alumni chapters

A new kind of business school for the global generation

Key Enrollment Contact Numbers:

Europe

London +44 207 341 8555
Lucerne + 41 41 417 4575
info.europe@hult.edu

Middle East

Dubai +971 4 427 5800
info.mea@hult.edu

South Asia

Mumbai +91 22 4944 4322
info.india@hult.edu

Asia

Hong Kong +852 2111 2399
info.asia@hult.edu
Shanghai +86 21 6133 6588
china.info@hult.edu

North America

Boston + 1 617 746 1990
info.northam@hult.edu
San Francisco +1 415 869 2900

Latin America

Miami +1 305 648 9746
info.latam@hult.edu
Brazil +55 11 2122 9085

hult.edu

To apply, please visit:
hult.edu/apply