(323) 555-0146
example@cvmaker.com

Los Angeles, CA

Jordan Lee

Actor / Performer / Jordan Lee

Work experience

Actor / Performer

Various Theater and Independent Film Productions

Jan 2020 - Present
Los Angeles, CA

Perform in stage productions and independent films, preparing roles through script analysis, character research, and rehearsals. Memorize dialogue and blocking, incorporate directors' feedback, and collaborate with fellow performers to develop scenes. Adapt vocal delivery and movement for live audiences and on-camera performances.
Selected credits:

- Our Town: George Gibbs, Cedar Lane Community Theatre (2025).
- The Last Train: Lead, independent short film directed by Maya Bennett (2024).
- The Importance of Being Earnest: Algernon Moncrieff, Brookside Players (2023).
- A Midsummer Night's Dream: Lysander, Northbank Studio Showcase (2022).

Additional experience: Narration for educational audio projects and character voice work for independent animated shorts.

Professional training

On-Camera: Northbank Acting Studio, 2024Voice & speech: Westbridge Voice Studio, 2023

Personal profile

Actor with six years of experience in community theater, independent films, and voice-over projects. Credits include George Gibbs in Our Town, Algernon Moncrieff in The Importance of Being Earnest, and a lead role in The Last Train. Holds a BA in Theater Arts, with further training in on-camera acting, improvisation, and voice. Prepares through script analysis and character research, responds to direction, and collaborates with cast members. Additional skills include baritone singing, acoustic guitar, and conversational Spanish.

Skills

- Character development
- Script analysis
- Improvisation
- Voice-over performance
- Accents and dialects

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Theater Arts, Westbridge, 2019