Policy Statement

EF Academy Oxford prides itself on the quality of teaching and pastoral care provided to its students. It recognises parents may, from time to time, have concerns about the progress, achievement, behaviour or welfare of their daughter or son. Parents are encouraged to make those concerns known to staff so they can be addressed in partnership with the School. The School takes all concerns and complaints seriously and will make every effort to deal with complaints informally, at an early stage, in the spirit of continued respect and partnership.

This is a three-stage process. In most cases, any concern or complaint, regardless of whose attention to whom it is initially brought, should be discussed informally at Stage 1, before being submitted to a formal process. Complaints concerning the Head of School may proceed directly to the formal process: Stage 2 (managed by our VP Operations UK).

Definitions

This policy deals with concerns or complaints from parents of current students and parents of former students, provided the complaint was initially raised when the student was still registered at the School. For the purposes of this procedure, concerns are defined as having a worry or doubt over an issue considered to be important for which reassurances are sought. A complaint can be any matter about which a parent / carer is unhappy and seeks action by the School.

General

This policy makes use of the procedures set out in the Education (Independent Schools Standards) Regulations 2014, which came into force on 5th Jan.'15. This policy will be made available in various formats and will be available on the School's website.

Guidance suggests there is a difference between 'concerns' which we take to be low-level and easily dealt with informally, and 'complaints', which should be subject to a formal procedure i.e. it cannot be easily resolved by the intervention of a Senior Manager. However, EF Academy Oxford understands any matter about which a parent of a student is unhappy and seeks action by the School, can be considered a complaint, and thus subject to the scope of this policy.

At EF Academy Oxford, a member of the Senior Leadership Group will be appointed as the Complaints Coordinator; this will usually be the Deputy Head, but could be another member of SLG at the discretion of the Head of School, or if the complaint relates to the Deputy Head. Please note, the Deputy Head's responsibilities, or roles, will be covered by the Head of School during the School's continued leadership restructure in the academic year Aug.'22 to Jul.'23, and from Sept.'22, Tina Desmond (Head of Boarding) will be the School's Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL).

The policy does not cover the following complaints:

- Complaints from members of staff: these are covered by the School's grievance procedures, or
- Financial concerns: these are covered by the home admissions office of the student

Type of Concerns & Complaints

The majority of concerns / complaints received by the School fall into the following categories:

- Academic: course programme, unsatisfactory teaching, too much / too little homework, progress in a particular subject etc.;
- Pastoral care: bullying, overall progress of the child (young person), unhappiness of the child (young person), accommodation etc.; or
- Child protection: allegations against staff, handling of sensitive issues.

This procedure does not apply to safeguarding concerns regarding children / young people or allegations of abuse made against teachers, and other staff, including supply teachers and volunteers, which are managed under the School's Safeguarding Policy, and is distinct from formal staff disciplinary, grievance or capability proceedings. Other matters falling outside this policy include:

- Appeals regarding a permanent exclusion, required removal and suspension are managed in accordance with Stage 3 of this procedure.
- Appeals against admissions are managed under the Admissions Policy.
- Where the complaint concerns a third party or service used by the School (please complain directly).

Procedures

We aim to deal with all matters of concern raised by parents or carers promptly, fairly, openly, and without prejudice. Concerns and complaints are more likely to be resolved informally when all parties commit to working together towards a resolution in the spirit of co-operation. Informal resolutions will usually involve a meeting between the complainant and the School. Any concern or complaint should be listened to by an appropriate member of the staff team (as appropriate to the nature of the complaint). Where further information is needed, we will aim to respond in a timely and sensitive manner. It also helps to understand what a satisfactory outcome would look like to the complainant.

When managing a concern or complaint informally at Stage 1, parents may, if they are not satisfied with the response, escalate their complaint to the formal stage of this procedure. Mediation meetings may be helpful in resolving issues of concern or in mending relationships and moving forward in partnership with parents / carers, however, these sit outside the formal complaints process.

The School also aims to ensure the complaints' process is easy to understand, access and be readily available. Parents etc. should not be put off from making a complaint because they are not sure how to do so. This complaints procedure is available on the School website and can be made available in hard copy on request.

Complaints which come to a member of staff from other sources should be passed immediately to the Head of School, who will inform the complainant of the action they proposes to take.

There are three possible stages to the School's complaints procedure.

Stage 1 Informal Resolution

Complaints expressed by parents to any member of staff should be dealt with by that member of staff if he / she is able to do so. The member of staff will acknowledge the complaint normally within 3 working days of receipt. They will try to identify areas of agreement and clarify any misunderstandings that might have occurred. They may make a written record of your concern or complaint, the date on which it was received, and then try to resolve the matter themselves, or refer you to the appropriate person. The extent to which complainants have attempted informal ways of addressing an issue may be taken into consideration when assessing the reasonableness of a complaint during the formal stages of the procedure.

If the member of staff considers the issue to be beyond his / her competence, the concern should be passed to the Head of School, who will either attempt to resolve the matter, or identify another member of the School SLG who will attempt to resolve the matter.

If a complaint cannot be resolved informally within 15 working days, or if the relevant member of staff and the parent fail to reach a satisfactory resolution, then the parents should proceed with their complaint in accordance with Stage 2.

Stage 2 Formal Procedure

If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant can choose to escalate the complaint to a formal stage. The complaint will be received by the Head of School and must be received in writing. When a written formal complaint is received, the Head of School and / or a member of the School's SLG will decide on the appropriate action and deploy a relevant member of senior staff to make appropriate investigations. The investigation lead will prepare a report that will include recommendations on whether the complaint can be resolved, or should be rejected. The School will, in normal circumstances, respond to the complaint within 5 working days of receiving the written complaint. When responding to the complaint, the School must inform the complainant of his / her right of appeal to an independent panel.

A log of all correspondence in relation to the complaint will be kept in accordance with the Data Protection Principles.

It may be necessary for the Head of school (or VP Operations UK) to carry out further investigation. In Investigating, the Head of School (or VP) will consider all evidence they consider relevant. This may include, but is not limited to:

- obtaining statements from the complainant and those involved with the complaint
- meeting / speaking with the complainant and those involved in the complaint
- reviewing relevant correspondence and other documents relating to the complaint

After considering all matters the Head of School / VP considers relevant, the Head of School / VP can decide to:

- uphold the complaint and direct that certain action be taken to resolve it
- uphold the complaint in part (in other words find an aspect or aspects of the complaint to be valid, but not the whole complaint) direct for certain action to be taken, or
- dismiss the complaint entirely

The Head of School will inform the complainant of their decision in writing, the grounds on which it was made, and any actions taken as a result of the complaint. Wherever reasonably practicable, this will be within 20 working days (excluding those that fall in school holidays) of having issued written acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint, or within 10 working days after any meeting or speaking with the parents to discuss the Stage 2 complaint. The written notification shall also advise the complainant of their right to escalate the complaint to Stage 3 of the formal complaint's procedure if they are not satisfied with the outcome at Stage 2.

Parents may request a review at Stage 3 of the procedure within 15 working days of receipt of the Stage 2 outcome letter. If the parent does not invoke a Stage 3 review within this timeframe the School may, acting reasonably, deem the complaint closed.

Stage 3 Independent Panel Hearing

Complainants who are not satisfied by the School's decision regarding the complaint can request a hearing by a panel of three members. The request should include a summary of the complaint, why the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of Stage 2, and the outcome they are seeking. The complainant must be advised, by the Head of School in writing to the VP Operations UK, outlining the reasons for requesting the panel hearing. Notification of the request for a panel hearing must be made within 10 working days of the complainant receiving the outcome of the School's decision from Stage 2 of the process. The VP Operations UK will convene a meeting of the complaints panel and will organise the time and date of the Stage 3 review meeting, inviting all the attendees, collating all the relevant documentation and distributing this to all parties, no less than 5 working days in advance of the meeting. The panel will be appointed by the VP Operations UK and will consist of one panel member who will be independent* of the School and two other members of school staff who have not previously been involved in the complaint.

The hearing will be held within 10 working days of the VP Operations UK receiving notice of the complaint, unless the parent requests a date reasonably close to, but outside of, the ten day period, or the parent insists upon bringing legal representation, in which case the School may require sufficient time to seek legal advice itself.

The complainant must be told of his or her right to be accompanied by a friend, and where relevant, translations / interpreters must be made available for and arranged for in consultation with parents. Where the complainant, Head of School / or relevant person involved in the complaint have been invited to attend the review meeting, they are entitled to be accompanied by a family member / friend / representative as appropriate. However, legal representatives are not permitted to attend the review meeting. The parents may attend and be accompanied at the panel meeting by one other person if they wish. This may be a relative, teacher or friend. Legal representation will not be appropriate.

The panel will hear the appeal(s), consider all the views expressed and decide the outcome. The panel can make such findings and recommendations to the VP Operations UK as it wishes. It must send its report to the VP Operations UK, the Head of School and the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about, within 3 working days of the hearing. Details of the complaint and panel hearing must be available for inspection on the School premises by the VP Operations UK and Head of School.

The School will ensure, in accordance with the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014, a copy of the findings and recommendations made at the panel review stage are provided in writing to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about. Any complaint of a decision taken by the Head of School to exclude or require the removal of the student will be governed by this stage of the School's complaints procedure. In such circumstances, the panel may only uphold the complaint and ask the Head of School to reconsider their decision if they consider, having regard to the process followed by the Head of School, his decision to exclude / require the removal of the student was not a reasonable decision for the Head of School to have taken. Stage 3 is the final stage at which the School will consider the complaint. Minutes of the review meeting will be taken and provided with the written notification of the decision taken at stage 3.

VP Operations UK Action

In general, the VP Operations UK will take one of the following courses of action:

- dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
- uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
- decide on appropriate action to resolve the complaint; or

- recommend changes to the School's systems or procedures.

The VP Operations UK decision is final.

*It is a requirement of the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014 that, where there is a panel hearing of a complaint, one panel member is independent of the management and running of the School.

Vexatious Complaints

There will be occasions when, despite all stages of the procedures having been followed, and where central office has agreed to investigate, the complainant remains dissatisfied. If the complainant tries to reopen the same issue or a closely related issue that has already been dealt with under this complaint's procedure, the VP Operations UK will inform parents in writing the procedure has been exhausted and the matter is now closed.

If the complainant writes again on the same issue, then the correspondence may be recognised as vexatious and there will be no obligation on the part of the School or central office to respond to any further correspondence on the same issues or a closely related issue. Whilst we understand some matters may be potentially upsetting, if the conduct of the complainant is inappropriate, threatening or abusive (either in person or in written form), the School reserves the right to regard the matter as a vexatious complaint and there will be no obligation on the part of the School to respond.

Reporting and Recording

In all cases it is important for staff to maintain accurate records so the nature of the complaint and the action taken can be recorded and traced. Supporting documents should be attached to the records. A written record will be kept of all complaints and whether they are resolved following a formal procedure or panel hearing. A record will be kept of actions taken by the School as a result of the complaint(s) whether upheld or not. All correspondence, statements and records pertaining to individual complaints will be kept confidential except where a body conducting an inspection requests access to them.

It is important those responsible for reviewing a complaint at each formal stage keep records of what the complaint was, whether it was resolved following a formal procedure or proceeded to a panel hearing, any action taken by the School as a result of the complaint (regardless of whether they are upheld), any evidence considered, and the outcome. The School will ensure, in accordance with the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014, a copy of the findings and recommendations made at the panel review stage are provided in writing to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about.

Any personal information recorded in regard to the complaint will be kept in accordance with the principles of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Act 2018. When dealing with complaints the School (including any panel member appointed under the relevant stages' process) may process a range of information, which is likely to include the following:

- the name of the complainant
- the date and time at which the complaint was made
- the details of the complaint
- the desired outcome of the complainant
- how the complaint is investigated (including written records of interviews held)
- findings and recommendations of investigations
- any action taken
- the complainant's response (satisfaction or further pursuit of complaint)

This may include 'special category personal data' (including sensitive data such as information relating to physical or mental health) where this is necessary owing to the nature of the complaint.

A confidential written record of all complaints made in accordance with the formal stage of this procedure will be kept by the School. The written record will include whether the complaint has been resolved following a formal procedure and whether it proceeded to a panel review meeting. It will also refer to any action taken by the School, regardless of whether it has been upheld.

Note: for the purposes of the complaint's procedure, 'working days' means term time days. If a complaint is received at the end of a term, a resolution will be reached within a maximum of 10 weeks from the date of the complaint being lodged.

Complaints registered in the preceding school year: 0 formal complaints were registered under the formal procedure during last academic year.
