I. Use of the website for informational purposes (using essential cookies)

When you use the website for informational purposes, the browser you are using on your device will send certain information such as your IP address to the server of our website for technical reasons. We process this information in order to provide the content you access on the website. Additionally, the information is stored temporarily in a server log file in order to guarantee the security of the IT infrastructure used to provide the website.

For the purpose of providing the search tools on our website, the data you enter into our search tools shall be processed temporarily on our web server.

Information about consent you have granted is stored in cookies (→ section G) on your device in order to provide the administrative features for consent relating to our website (e.g. consent to the use of certain cookie-based technologies). During your visit to our website, the cookies and the information stored therein can be accessed in order to determine whether you have given your consent and to what. Additionally, for the purpose of providing your chosen language, data are processed temporarily on our web server in order to provide you with the website content you access in the language you have chosen.

II. Use of marketing technology and advertising networks (using marketing cookies)

If you have consented to marketing purposes in the data privacy and cookie settings (https://www.marc-o-polo.com/on/demandware.store/Sites-MOP-Site/de_DE/Home-CookieSettings), we shall use marketing technology from various providers (Google, Microsoft, Criteo, Mediads, Stylight, Esome, Awin, Daisycon, Tracdelight, Tectumedia, Outbrain, Usemax, Emarsys, Facebook, Pinterest) for the following purposes:

- Evaluation of user actions (conversion tracking), segmentation of visitors and evaluation of campaign performance
- Strategic targeting of users of the website for advertising purposes (retargeting), including settling accounts with our retargeting partners for ad placement
- The participation of our website in various advertising networks (affiliate networks) in order to advertise our products in the most effective way possible, including displaying personalised, interest-based adverts and paying for the advertising campaigns with our promotional partners
- Evaluation of the effectiveness of our Facebook adverts and creation of target groups for our Facebook adverts by means of the Facebook pixel
- Collection and evaluation of how users use our website in order to tailor our newsletters to the interests of each subscriber

In some cases, we and the provider of the marketing technology are jointly responsible for the collection of data with this marketing technology on our website. Any further processing of the data by the provider in question for its own purposes or for the purposes of third parties is the sole responsibility of that provider. You can find information about whether we are jointly responsible with each provider and references to the privacy policies of the providers below.

We and each provider use cookies for this purpose (→ section G Marketing).

III. Use of web analytics technologies (using analytics cookies)

If you have consented to analytical purposes in the data privacy and cookie settings (https://www.marc-o-polo.com/on/demandware.store/Sites-MOP-Site/de_DE/Home-CookieSettings) we shall use web analytics technologies for the following purpose:

- To improve the website, including through A/B testing (a comparison of user behaviour on different versions of our website)
- to reach website targets more effectively (e.g. increase the number of page views) and
- to calculate the remuneration of advertising partners (affiliates)

we use the web analytics technologies Google Analytics, Google Optimize and Triple A from Artefact. We use cookies for this purpose (section G Analytics).

More detailed information about this is available below:

C. INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF CUSTOMERS ON OUR ONLINE STORE

You can use our MARC O'POLO online stores on our website, different versions of which are available for different countries at country-specific URLs (e.g. www.marc-opolo.com/de-de/ for Germany).

As our partner Global E is responsible (as a separate controller) for the processing of personal data in relation to the online purchase, please refer to the privacy policy of Global E: https://globale-prod.s3-eu-west-1.amazonaws.com/GlobaleLegalDocuments/GlobalePrivacyPolicy/Global-e_Privacy_Policy.pdf

D. INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF SUBSCRIBERS TO OUR E-MAIL NEWSLETTER

You can subscribe to our e-mail newsletter on the website. The newsletter provides information about new outfits and current product trends and also tells you about our special events, promotions and competitions. Likewise, we make it possible for you to subscribe to our newsletter on the social networks such as Facebook and Instagram directly.

Through your orders from our online store (section C) or as part of our MARC O'POLO MEMBERS programme (section E), we can tailor the content of the newsletter (where we have such data) precisely to you (e.g. based on your purchase history or Member points). If, in addition to your newsletter subscription, you have consented to marketing in our data privacy and cookie settings (section B.II), we will add even more customised content to the newsletter (e.g. about products in your basket or which we recommend based on the product category you viewed most recently).

When you subscribe to the newsletter, certain information such as your e-mail address shall be collected. We process this information in order to confirm your subscription and to deliver the newsletter. Additionally, we shall store this information to serve as evidence for the purposes of filing, exercising or defending against legal claims. If you also participate in customer surveys, we shall process the data collected through the survey for market research purposes.

When you use the form on the website to subscribe to and unsubscribe from our newsletter, the browser you are using on your device will send certain information such as your IP address to the server of our website for technical reasons. We shall process this information in order to provide the form on the website to subscribe to and unsubscribe from our newsletter.

More detailed information about this is available below:

F. INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF USERS OF OUR CUSTOMER SERVICE

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

On the website, we provide you with the means of contacting our customer service via a contact form or chat. Furthermore, we provide you with the means of speaking with a customer service employee on our customer hotline or contacting our customer service by e-mail.

We process the information you provide to our customer service in order to process your enquiry, such as questions about an order. Additionally, we might store the information as evidence for the purposes of filing, exercising or defending against legal claims or in order to comply with statutory storage obligations, especially those imposed by tax and commercial law. If you are a verified participant in our Customer Loyalty Scheme, we shall also store these data for 12 months from the date on which your enquiry was closed so as to be able to take it into consideration if you make any further enquiries.

Where necessary in order to process your enquiry, we shall also make use of any other information we might already have in connection with your orders in the online shop (section C) or your participation in our Customer Loyalty Scheme (section E).

When you use the contact forms / chat on the website, the browser you are using on your device will send certain information such as your IP address to the server of our website for technical reasons. We process this information in order to provide the contact forms / chats on the website and ensure the security of the IT infrastructure used to provide them.

In order to measure the quality of our customer service, we generate aggregated evaluations of the nature of an enquiry and of the time taken to process each one. With your consent, we shall also record your phone conversations with our customer service staff and evaluate these recordings in order to improve our customer service.

More detailed information about this is available below:

I. General information about cookies

Cookies are small text files containing information which can be stored on your device by your browser when you visit a website. If you visit a website again using the same device, the cookie and the information stored in it can be read.

1. First-party and third-party cookies

First-party cookies and third-party cookies differ depending on where the cookie originated from:

First-party cookies	Cookies which are stored and read by the operator of the website as the controller or by a processor engaged by the operator of the website.
Third-party cookies	Cookies which are stored and read by other controllers than the operator of the website who are not acting as processors on behalf of the operator of the website.

2. Session and persistent cookies

Session and persistent cookies also differ in terms of their period of validity:

Session cookies	Cookies which are erased automatically when you close your browser.
Persistent cookies	Cookies which remain on your device for a period of time after you close your browser.

3. Cookies which require and are exempt from consent

Depending on their function and purpose, the use of certain cookies can be subject to the consent of the user. As such, cookies differ depending on whether or not their use requires the consent of the user:

Cookies which are exempt from consent	Cookies whose sole purpose is to transmit a communication over an electronic communications network.
	Cookies which are strictly necessary in order to provide an information society service explicitly requested by the subscriber or user ('strictly necessary cookies').

II. Administration of the cookies used on this website

1. Consent to the use of cookies and administration of cookies through the privacy and cookie settings

Where the use of certain cookies requires the consent of the user, we shall only use those cookies when you use the website if you have previously consented to it. For information about whether the use of a cookie requires consent, see the information about the cookies used on this website in section G.III of this privacy policy.

When you visit our website, a cookie banner will appear in which you can click on a button to consent to the use of cookies on this website. By clicking on the designated button, you can consent to the use of all cookies described individually in section G.III of this privacy policy. Alternatively, you can click on the button Cookie Settings (LINK TO https://www.marc-o-polo.com/on/demandware.store/Sites-MOP-Site/de_DE/Home-CookieSettings) to make a custom selection of cookies and make changes to your selection at a later date. Likewise, we shall store your consent and any individual selection of cookies you make in the form of a cookie (an opt-in cookie) on your device in order to determine whether you have already granted consent if you visit the website again in future. The opt-in cookie has a limited validity period of six months.

Strictly necessary cookies cannot be deactivated using the cookie administration tool on this website. However, you can deactivate such cookies at any time through your browser settings.

2. Administration of cookies through browser settings

You can also manage the use of cookies in your browser settings. Different browsers provide different means of configuring the cookie settings in the browser. For example, you can find more detailed information about this at <https://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/>

However, please note that some of the features of the website might no longer work properly or at all if you deactivate all cookies in your browser.

H. INFORMATION ABOUT THE RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

As a data subject, you have the following rights with regard to the processing of your personal data:

- Right of access (Article 15 GDPR)
- Right to rectification (Article 16 GDPR)
- Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') (Article 17 GDPR)
- Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 GDPR)
- Right to data portability (Article 20 GDPR)
- Right to object (Article 21 GDPR)
- Right to withdraw consent (Article 7(3) GDPR)
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Article 77 GDPR)

If you wish to exercise your rights, you can contact us using the information provided in section A.

For information about any particular methods and mechanisms that make it easier for you to exercise your rights, especially your rights to data portability and to object, please refer to the information about how personal data are processed in sections B to F of this privacy policy.

Below you will find more detailed information about your rights with regard to the processing of your personal data:

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

I. Right of access

As a data subject, you have a right to access information in line with the requirements of Article 15 GDPR.

In particular, this means that you have the right to obtain from us confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning you are being processed. If this is the case, you also have a right to information about these personal data and to the information set out in Article 15(1) GDPR. In particular, this information includes the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed (points (a), (b) and (c) of Article 15(1) GDPR).

For full details about your right of access, please refer to Article 15 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

II. Right to rectification

As a data subject, you have a right to rectification in line with the requirements of Article 16 GDPR.

In particular, this means that you have the right to obtain from us without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you, as well as the right to have incomplete personal data completed.

For full details about your right to rectification, please refer to Article 16 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

III. Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')

As a data subject, you have a right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') in line with the requirements of Article 17 GDPR.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us the erasure of personal data concerning you without undue delay, and we have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the grounds set out in Article 17(1) GDPR applies. For example, this can be the case when personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed (point (a) of Article 17(1) GDPR).

Where we have made the personal data public and are obliged to erase the personal data, we, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform controllers which are processing the personal data that the data subject has requested the erasure by such controllers of any links to, or copy or replication of, those personal data (Article 17(2) GDPR).

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

In an exceptional case, the right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') does not apply to the extent that the processing is necessary for the reasons set out in Article 17(3) GDPR. For example, this can be the case where the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims (points (b) and (e) of Article 17(3) GDPR).

For full details about your right to erasure, please refer to Article 17 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

IV. Right to restriction of processing

As a data subject, you have a right to restriction of processing in line with the requirements of Article 18 GDPR.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us restriction of processing if one of the criteria set out in Article 18(1) GDPR is met. This can be the case, for example, if you contest the accuracy of the personal data. In this case, processing shall be restricted for a period enabling us to verify the accuracy of the personal data (point (a) of Article 18(1) GDPR).

Restriction means the marking of stored personal data with the aim of limiting their processing in the future (Article 4(3) GDPR).

For full details about your right to restriction of processing, please refer to Article 18 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

V. Right to data portability

As a data subject, you have a right to data portability in line with the requirements of Article 20 GDPR.

This means that you have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from us, where the processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6(1) GDPR or point (a) of Article 9(2) GDPR or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6(1) GDPR, and the processing is carried out by automated means (Article 20(1) GDPR).

For information about whether processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6(1) GDPR or point (a) of Article 9(2) GDPR or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6(1) GDPR, please refer to the information about the legal grounds on which processing is based in sections B to F of this privacy policy.

In exercising your right to data portability, you also have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from us to another controller, where technically feasible (Article 20(2) GDPR).

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

For full details about your right to restriction of processing, please refer to Article 20 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

VI. Right to object

As a data subject, you have a right to object in line with the requirements of Article 21 GDPR.

We shall expressly make you aware of your right to object when we first communicate with you at the very latest.

More detailed information about this is available below:

1. Right to object for reasons arising from the particular situation of the data subject

As a data subject, you have the right, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning you which is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6(1) GDPR, including profiling based on these provisions.

For information about whether processing is taking place on the basis of point (e) or (f) of Article 6(1) GDPR, please refer to the information about the legal grounds on which processing is based in section B to F of this privacy policy.

If you object on grounds relating to your particular situation, we shall no longer process the personal data concerning you unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

For full details about your right to object, please refer to Article 21 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

2. Right to object to direct marketing

Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object, at any time, to processing of personal data concerning you for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

For information about whether and to what extent personal data are being processed for direct marketing purposes, please refer to the information about the purposes of processing in sections B to F of this privacy policy.

If you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, we shall no longer process your personal data for such purposes.

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

For full details about your right to object, please refer to Article 21 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

VII. Right to withdraw consent

If processing is based on consent in accordance with point (a) of Article 6(1) GDPR or point (a) of Article 9(2) GDPR, you, the data subject, have the right to withdraw your consent at any time pursuant to Article 7(3) GDPR. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. We shall make you aware of this before you grant consent.

For information about whether processing is taking place on the basis of consent in accordance with point (a) of Article 6(1) GDPR or point (a) of Article 9(2) GDPR, please refer to the information about the legal grounds on which processing is based in sections B to F of this privacy policy.

VIII. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

As a data subject, you have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority in line with the requirements of Article 77 GDPR.

The following supervisory authority has jurisdiction over us:

Bayerisches Landesamt für Datenschutzaufsicht / Bavarian Data Protection Authority
Promenade 18, 91522 Ansbach

I. INFORMATION ABOUT THE TERMINOLOGY FROM THE GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION USED IN THIS DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

The definitions of the terminology used in this privacy policy are the same as in the General Data Protection Regulation.

For full details about the definitions in the General Data Protection Regulation, please refer to Article 4 GDPR at <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

Below you will find more detailed information about the most important key terms of the General Data Protection Regulation on which this privacy policy is based:

- ‘Personal data’ means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (‘data subject’); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;
- ‘Data subject’ is the identified or identifiable natural person to whom personal data relate;
- ‘Processing’ means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction;
- ‘Profiling’ means any form of automated processing of personal data consisting of the use of personal data to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to a natural person, in particular to analyse or predict aspects concerning that natural person’s performance at work, economic situation, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, behaviour, location or movements;
- ‘Controller’ means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law;
- ‘Processor’ means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes personal data on behalf of the controller;
- ‘Recipient’ means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or another body, to which the personal data are disclosed, whether a third party or not. However, public authorities which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients; the processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing;

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

- 'Third party' means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorised to process personal data;
- 'International organisation' means an organisation and its subordinate bodies governed by public international law, or any other body which is set up by, or on the basis of, an agreement between two or more countries;
- 'Third country' means a country that is not a Member State of the European Union (EU) or European Economic Area (EEA);
- 'Special categories of personal data' means data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, as well as genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

- d) To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.

We disclose Information to third parties for business purposes as described above under the sub-sections titled "Details about the processing of personal data".

In the preceding twelve (12) months, We have disclosed the following categories of Information for business purposes: Identifiers, which we have shared with the following categories of third parties: service providers involved in the performance of the fulfillment of the service rendered to you. In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have not sold Information.

Your California Rights: If you are a California resident, you may be entitled to the following specific rights under the CCPA regarding your Information:

1. Access to Specific Information and Data Portability Rights

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

You have the right to request that we will disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your Information over the past 12 months. Upon confirmation of your request, We will disclose to you:

The categories of Information we collected about you

The categories of sources for the Information we collected about you

Our business or commercial purpose for collecting that Information

The categories of third parties with whom we share that Information

The categories of Information that we disclosed for a business purpose, and the categories of third parties to whom we disclosed that particular category of Information

The specific pieces of Information We collected about you

If We disclosed your Information for a business purpose, we will provide you with a list which will identify the Information categories that each category of recipient obtained.

2. Deletion Rights

You have the right to request that we delete any of your Information. Upon confirmation of your request, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your Information from our records, unless an exception applies.

3. Nondiscrimination Right

You have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising any of the aforementioned rights.

4. Exercising Your Rights

- To exercise the access, data portability, and deletion rights described above, please submit your request to us by sending an email to: dataprotection@marc-o-polo.com.
- Only you or a person authorized to act on your behalf, may make a request related to your Information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child. If you submit your request through an authorized agent, we may request that the agent provide proof of your prior authorization, as well as information necessary to verify your identity.
- A request for access can be made by you only twice within a 12-month period.

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

- We may ask you to provide additional information in order to verify your identity before we respond to your request. We cannot respond to your request or provide you with the requested Information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the Information relates to you. We will only use the Information provided in your request to verify your identity or authority to make the request.
- We will do our best to respond to your request within 45 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to additional 45 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. If you do not have an account with us, we will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option.
- Any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding receipt of your request.
- The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable.
- For data portability requests, we will select a format to provide your Information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another entity without hindrance, specifically by electronic mail communication.
- We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will inform you of the reasons for such decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.

Hong Kong

Under the Personal Data(Privacy) Ordinance, individuals must be notified at the point of collection of the purposes for which the data was collected and thereafter the data can only be used for those purposes unless consent is obtained for a new purpose. If you are not happy with this Policy, you may submit a complaint to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data. As a Hong Kong data subject you have legal rights in relation to the Information we hold about you (to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations). You are entitled to make a subject access request to receive a copy of the data we process about you, a data correction request as well as a right to reject to the use of your Information for direct marketing purposes by contacting our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@marc-o-polo.com. A fee may be chargeable by us for complying with a data access request.

India

Where we permit any third parties to collect and use information, we shall take reasonable measures to ensure that the third parties do not further disclose such information. To the extent provided by applicable laws and regulations, you may withdraw any consent you previously provided to us for certain processing activities by contacting us at dataprotection@marc-o-polo.com. Where consent is required to process your Information, if you do not consent to the processing or if you withdraw your consent we may not be able to deliver the expected service.

Japan

By clicking “accept”, you consent to the cross-border transfer of your information to any jurisdiction where we have databases or affiliates and, in particular, to Germany. You may request us to notify you about the purposes of use of, to disclose, to make any correction to, to discontinue the use or provision of, and/or to delete any and all of your Information which is stored by us, to the extent provided by the Act on the Protection of Personal Information of Japan. When you wish to make such requests, please contact us at dataprotection@marc-o-polo.com.

New Zealand

Marc O'Polo

EST. IN STOCKHOLM

We take reasonable steps to ensure that third party recipients of your Information located outside New Zealand handle your Information in a manner that is consistent with New Zealand privacy laws. However, you acknowledge that we do not control, or accept liability for, the acts and omissions of these third party recipients. If you are under the age of 16, you undertake that you have the consent of your parent or legal guardian to register an account on and use the Service. If you are dissatisfied with our response to your request for access to, or correction of, your Information or your privacy complaint in respect of your Information, you may contact the Office of the New Zealand Privacy Commissioner (www.privacy.org.nz).

While we take reasonable steps to ensure that third party recipients of your Information comply with privacy laws that are similar to those of your jurisdiction, you acknowledge and agree that we cannot control the actions of third party recipients and so cannot guarantee that they will comply with those privacy laws.

Singapore

By using the Services, you signify that you have read and understood this Policy. To the extent required under applicable law, you also provide your consent to us collecting, using and disclosing your personal information in accordance with this Policy. Under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, individuals must be notified at the point of collection of the purposes for which the data was collected and thereafter the data can only be used for those purposes unless consent is obtained for a new purpose. As a Singaporean data subject you have legal rights in relation to the Information we hold about you (to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations). You are entitled to make a subject access request to receive a copy of the data we process about you, a data correction request as well as a right to reject to the use of your Information for direct marketing purposes. We will not charge any fee for complying with a data access request.

K. STATUS AND CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy is dated October 26th 2021.

Due to technical advancements and/or changes to statutory and/or official requirements, it might become necessary to amend this privacy policy.

The current version of the privacy policy is always available at www.marc-o-polo.com.
