(1) Options purchased together with an SME SecureConnect M, L or XL subscription shall have the same contract term as the respective SME SecureConnect subscription. Any Option purchased after activation of the SME SecureConnect subscription shall be subject to a separate minimum contract term of twelve (12) months, irrespective of the remaining term of the SME SecureConnect subscription.

(2) Following expiry of the initial contract term (24/36/48/60 months), pricing will automatically revert to the then-current list price applicable to a 12-month contract term.

(3) An activation fee of CHF 99.00 for Business Mobile Backup and CHF 92.51 for TV Hospitality shall apply only where the respective Option is ordered after the initial order of the Core SME SecureConnect M, L or XL (post-sale activation). No activation fee shall be charged if the Option is purchased as part of the initial order of SME SecureConnect M, L or XL.

(4) Prices incl. 5% stamp duty, excl. VAT

(5) Following expiry of the 24 months promotion, pricing will automatically revert to the then-current list price applicable to a 12-month contract term.
