

What to expect when working with Marble

Motion to Enforce Order in Texas

We're in this together. We're here to make the process as transparent as possible. Below you'll see step by step what goes into filing for divorce in Texas and what you can expect in terms of timeline.

Your service, explained in a sentence:

You're asking the court to enforce an existing court order or final judgment.

What's included

- ✓ Preparing and filing paperwork needed
- ✓ 1 attempt to serve the paperwork to the opposing party (if they're in the US and we know where to find them)
- ✓ Court filing fees
- ✓ If required, your attorney will go to 1 court hearing with you

The steps and timeline

The descriptions provided here are for illustrative purposes only. Please refer to your signed Marble Agreement to review the specific services you have agreed to. Your legal team will do its best to tackle your legal issue(s) as timely as possible, however, we make no guarantees as to how long your case will take. Every case is different, and several factors may impact the timeline of your case, including varying court processing times and suggested changes to your legal service offerings.

01 Talk to a lawyer about your needs

Once we understand your unique situation, we can recommend the right service for you.

02 Sign the Marble Agreement

This is our official agreement, with the services we'll do and the payment info.

03 Meet your legal team

First things first, you'll meet your attorney, get to know your legal team and go over your case strategy.

When will this happen?
Up to 3 days from signing the Marble Agreement

04 We need some information from you

To take care of your paperwork, we'll need some info and documents from you.

When will this happen?
It's up to you—we ask you to send it back to us as soon as possible

05 We prepare all the paperwork needed

How long does this take?
10 days once we have all your documents and information

06 Your paperwork is ready for your signature

How long does this take?
We'll ask you to review and sign within 2-3 days

07 We file the forms with the court

How long does this take?
3 days

08 The county clerk processes your paperwork

How long does this take?
It's up to the court, but this typically takes about a week

09 We attempt to serve the opposing party and file proof of service

According to state law, the opposing party needs to be officially notified in person about your motion. We will make one attempt to hand-deliver the documents to them.

How long does this take?
A month

Please note

The opposing party needs to be in the US and we need to know where to find them.

10 We attend the court hearing

When will this happen?
It's up to the court but this typically happens a month after the court processes your paperwork

Please note

This service includes 1 hearing. If you need an additional hearing, this will be an additional service.

11 We prepare and file the court orders

How long does this take?
About a week

12 The court order is ready for review and signature

Both you and the opposing party need to review and sign.

How long does this take?
About a week

13 We file the signed order with the court

How long does this take?
1 day

14 The court processes the signed order

How long does this take?
It's up to the court, but this typically takes about 2 days

15 According to the Marble Agreement, we've completed our work.

What happens next

It really depends on your specific case.

If you have any questions, your legal team is here to help.

Marble moves you forward