

Meet Shari Rackman

Family Law and Divorce

Licensed in
New York

Practicing since
1989

Practicing in
New York

Education

Yeshiva University

Yeshiva University

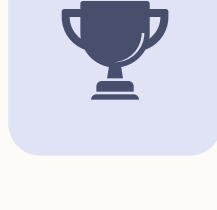

HOFSTRA
UNIVERSITY

Hofstra
University
School of Law

Notable accomplishments

Receiver of the Karen Z Bell NYS Bar Association Merit Award for my work with the Pace Women’s Justice Center Moderate Means Panel

Family Law panelist and presenter at the Pace Law School New Directions for Attorneys Program

“Some people think divorce destroys marriages, but the marriage is destroyed long before the divorce. I concentrate on helping my client create new family structures so that they can move forward in a positive way. I do my best to create a safe environment for my client's children so that they can enjoy good relationships with both parents after the court process ends.”

Get to know Shari

01

My clients describe me as

Passionate about fighting for my client's rights, an outspoken advocate, available after hours for emergencies

02

My favorite part of being a lawyer

Seeing how much my clients' lives are improved after their cases have ended.

03

Something I’m proud of

I am the mother of three and have three step children. I know what goes on behind the scenes on the Brady Bunch.

04

My mentor is

RBG

05

When I’m not practicing law

I’m needlepointing, going out to eat and spending time with friends and family.