

Meet Judy Harris Sutton

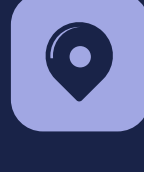

Family Law and Divorce, Wills

Licensed in Texas

Practicing since 1995

Practicing in Texas

Education

University of Houston, English, Theatre, Psychology

South Texas
College of Law

“I have personally gone through divorce, termination of the biological father's rights, stepparent adoption, and verbal and emotional abuse. I realize it takes a very special advocate to patiently listen and understand what a client needs and wants. Not everyone is the same. I use a humanitarian approach to practicing law.”

Get to know Judy

01

My clients describe me as

Kind, strong, intelligent, compassionate

02

My mentor is

Georgia Dempster, a previous Judge of the 306th in Harris County who is now deceased.

03

Something that may surprise you about me

I used to be an actress and model.

04

Before I was a lawyer

I taught high school and college.
In my free time, I modeled, did commercials, acted in plays and made TV movies. At 37, I decided I had to go for it. I have always fought for the underdog.
I hate bullying. It was just a natural fit for my personality. I feel good about the clients I have helped and saved.

05

When I'm not practicing law

I dance, sing, read, star or direct plays at the local theater. I also love watching Netflix.
