

AEQUO

Nataliya Dryuk

Partner, co-head of IP practice group

EXPERTISE

Nataliya Dryuk is a recognized expert in intellectual property and civil and commercial litigation.

She has acted for domestic and international companies such as DuPont, Corteva, Dr. Reddy's, Forbes, Google, Xiaomi and many others in biotech, pharma, FMCG, IT, telecom and media industries.

Natalia secured a series of victories in Ukrainian courts in complex and precedent-setting patent, trademark and copyright litigation matters. Her achievements include, among many other successful matters, a landmark Supreme Court case setting a new approach to biosimilar vs generic medical products and the most high-profile copyright and trademark dispute settlement in the Ukrainian television market.

EDUCATION

Donetsk National University, Donetsk (2006).

ADMISSION

- Kyiv Region Bar Association (since 2007).
- Ukrainian Bar Association (UBA).
- International Trademark Association (INTA).
- American Chamber of Commerce in Ukraine (ACC).
- European Business Association (EBA).

RECOGNITION

Nataliya's professional achievements have been recognized by a range of international legal market researchers, such as Chambers Europe, The Legal 500, IP Stars, World Trademark Review (WTR) 1000, IAM Patent 1000, The Best Lawyers, and The Ukrainian Law Firms. A Handbook for Foreign Clients.