Denis Lysenko

Executive Partner, head of the Tax and Customs practice

Denis chairs the Energy and Natural Resources, Infrastructure and Transportation industry groups

EXPERTISE

For over 20 years Mr. Lysenko represented major global and regional investors (strategic and private equity players, banks and other lenders), as well as the country's top business groups in multi-million cross-border transactions involving market-leading Ukrainian assets.

His expertise includes complex group corporate and tax restructurings, sectoral consolidation and establishment of strategic joint ventures, large-scale privatization and PPP projects, full regulatory, tax and contractual support for brownfield and greenfield investments across a spectrum of Ukraine's key industries. Denis was also involved as a core team member in a number of landmark international arbitrations, including investment treaty cases, and precedent-setting tax and other domestic regulatory disputes.

Mr. Lysenko has a significant practical experience of supporting CEE regional investments by Ukraine's large corporates in the steel, energy and natural resources sectors, as well as representing investors before the European Commission in financing and competition (state aid) matters.
