TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS FOR HOSTING WEBINAR

A list with technical requirements to host webinars with WebinarGeek

Checklist technical requirements

- ☐ When you're using desktop computer that's maximum 5 years old
- ☐ When using a laptop that's maximum 3 years old
- ☐ Make sure you have strong and stable internet connection
- ☐ Windows 10 or Higher / Mac: OSX Yosemite 10.14 or higher / Linux: Ubuntu 10.04+, Debian 8+, openSUSE 13.1+ or Fedora Linux 21+
- ☐ Use the most up to date version of Chrome to stream
- ☐ Your viewers can use:
  Google Chrome (version 65 or higher)
  Mozilla Firefox (version 49 or higher)
  Mac Safari (version 10 or higher)
  Internet Explorer 11 & Edge (earlier versions are not supported)
  Android 4.2 or newer (with Google Chrome 50 or higher) iOS Safari & Google Chrome for iOS (iOS10 or higher)

Extra tips for technical requirements

- Turn off your WiFi and make sure you are connected to cable internet for a stable internet connection

- Test your webinar, create a live webinar and invite some people to watch your test (live) webinar. Host a webinar with a duration of 15 minutes and check with the viewers (and extra users) if everything is okay.

- Close all other programs that are running in the background to make sure that your webinar for all the resources it needs.