

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: May 2026

1. Our commitment

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information when you use our website, mobile application, products, and services (collectively, the "Services").

We process personal information in accordance with applicable privacy and data protection laws, including the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ("POPIA") and, where applicable, the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, share, store, and protect your personal information.

2. What is personal information?

"Personal information" means information relating to an identifiable, living natural person and, where applicable, an identifiable existing juristic person, as defined in POPIA.

This may include your name, contact details, identity or registration number, tax number, financial information, payment and transaction information, location information, online identifiers, device information, and other information relating to your use of our Services.

In some cases, our identity verification providers or we may process biometric information, such as facial imagery or liveness detection data, where necessary to verify identity, comply with legal obligations, prevent fraud, support onboarding, or provide our Services.

3. Information we collect about you

We may collect, use, store, and process the following categories of personal and business information:

- identification information, including your name, identity number, date of birth, company registration information, tax number, and verification information;
- contact information, including your email address, phone number, and physical address;

- financial and transaction information, including payment activity, merchant transaction history, bank account information, and other financial information relating to your use of our Services;
- device and technical information, including IP address, browser type, operating system, device identifiers, cookie information, and usage data relating to your interaction with our Services;
- location information, including approximate geolocation derived from your device or IP address;
- communications and support information, including your interactions with us through customer support, messaging channels, or other communications platforms;
- loyalty and rewards information, including tokenised card references used to identify loyalty programme members during qualifying transactions without storing full card numbers, loyalty transaction activity, rewards accrual and redemption information, and interactions through loyalty communication channels;
- compliance, risk, and verification information, including fraud prevention data, identity verification data, onboarding information, sanctions screening information, regulatory information, and information obtained from verification or compliance providers; and
- biometric information, such as facial imagery or liveness detection data, processed by our identity verification providers or by us, as necessary, to verify identity, comply with legal obligations, prevent fraud, support onboarding, or provide our Services.

We may obtain, collect, or verify personal or business information from trusted third-party sources, including regulators, public registers, compliance providers, identity verification providers, financial institutions, credit bureaus, product partners, and other service providers in order to:

- verify your identity or business information;
- support onboarding and compliance processes;
- assess eligibility or suitability for current or future products or services;
- reduce fraud and security risks;
- support product enablement; and
- improve or streamline your experience with Yoco Services.

4. Sources of information we collect about you include:

We collect information about you from the following categories of sources:

- you directly, when you sign up to become a Yoco merchant;
- your devices (e.g. computers, mobile phones, and tablets) when you interact with our website (www.yoco.com) or use our App and Services;
- other sources, including:

- online advertising and third-party analytics companies;
- credit reference agencies, identity verification agencies and other service providers who help us with third-party identity verification, credit confirmation and fraud detection;
- third-party service providers that provide services to us that enable us to provide our services to you and make our App available to you;
- credit bureaus and financial institutions; and
- publicly available sources (such as public records of criminal convictions and arrest records).
- communication platform providers, Card Associations, Banking Partners, and other third-party network or commercial partners (as defined in our Main Terms and Conditions) that support loyalty services, payment processing, customer communications, onboarding, verification, fraud prevention, product enablement, or other Yoco Services.

5. How we use your information:

We use your personal and business information to provide, operate, maintain, improve, and support our Services and our relationship with you.

This includes using your information to:

- onboard and verify merchants and customers;
- provide payment, loyalty, financial services, and other Yoco products and services;
- process transactions and maintain merchant accounts;
- communicate with you about your account, transactions, products, support requests, and service updates;
- personalise and improve your experience across Yoco Services;
- support onboarding, product activation, eligibility assessments, and future product offerings;
- detect, prevent, and investigate fraud, security incidents, financial crime, or other misuse of our Services;
- comply with legal, regulatory, risk, and compliance obligations;
- support analytics, reporting, research, testing, and product development; and
- support our service providers, partners, and infrastructure providers in delivering Yoco Services.

We may also use location, device, usage, and technical information to improve functionality, security, fraud prevention, and user experience across our Services.

You can manage certain browser or device permissions, including cookies and location settings, in your device or browser settings, though disabling some permissions may affect the functionality of our Services.

6. Purposes of Processing Personal Information

We process personal and business information where necessary to:

- provide and support Yoco Services;
- establish, maintain, and manage merchant and customer relationships;
- process payments, loyalty transactions, rewards, and other financial or partner-enabled services;
- verify identity, business information, tax information, onboarding information, and eligibility for current or future products or services;
- conduct onboarding, fraud prevention, sanctions screening, security monitoring, risk assessments, and compliance checks;
- comply with legal, regulatory, audit, reporting, and compliance obligations;
- communicate with you regarding your account, transactions, support requests, products, promotions, and service updates;
- improve, personalise, develop, test, monitor, and analyse our Services and platform infrastructure;
- conduct analytics, internal reporting, market research, and business operations;
- enable our service providers, infrastructure providers, verification providers, Banking Partners, Card Associations, and other partners to support or provide Yoco Services; and
- exercise or protect our legal rights or respond to lawful requests or legal processes.

We may also process aggregated, anonymised, or de-identified information for analytics, statistical, research, operational, security, and product improvement purposes.

Where permitted by law, we may retain and reuse verified information previously obtained about you or your business to support current or future Yoco products and services.

Please note that we and our service providers on our behalf may also collect data generated by automatic measurements of an individual's biological characteristics, such as a fingerprint, voiceprint, eye retinas, irises, or other unique biological patterns or characteristics that are used to identify a specific individual and we may provide this information to service providers and regulators in order to identify who you are or if we are required to by applicable law.

7. Your rights and access to your information

You may request access to, correction of, or updates to your personal information by contacting us at privacy@yoco.com.

Where permitted by applicable law, you may also object to certain processing activities or request the deletion of personal information that is no longer required for lawful or legitimate business purposes.

We may retain certain information to comply with legal, regulatory, fraud-prevention, security, audit, or recordkeeping obligations.

We take reasonable steps to help ensure that the personal information we process is accurate, complete, and up to date.

8. Children's information and special personal information:

Our Services are not directed at children under the age of 18 and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children unless permitted by law or with the consent of a competent person, such as a parent or legal guardian.

In certain circumstances, we may process special personal information or biometric information where permitted or required by applicable law, including for identity verification, fraud prevention, onboarding, compliance, security, or regulatory purposes.

Where required, we will implement appropriate safeguards and processing measures for such information.

9. Sharing of personal information:

We may share personal and business information with:

- our employees, directors, officers, contractors, advisors, and group companies on a need-to-know basis;
- service providers and infrastructure providers that support the operation, security, onboarding, verification, analytics, communications, loyalty, payment, fraud prevention, compliance, and other Yoco Services;
- Banking Partners, Card Associations, financial services providers, verification providers, regulators, product partners, and other commercial partners, where reasonably necessary to provide, support, improve, secure, or enable Yoco Services;
- payment networks, banks, financial institutions, and other parties involved in processing transactions or providing related services;
- regulators, law enforcement authorities, courts, dispute bodies, or other third parties where required by law or to protect our legal rights, customers, merchants, platform, or Services; and
- current or prospective investors, shareholders, funders, noteholders, debt financiers, warehouse providers, joint venture partners, purchasers, or advisors in connection with financing activities, investments, financial products, commercial partnerships, corporate transactions, restructures, acquisitions, securitisations, or sales of business assets.

We require third parties who process personal information on our behalf to maintain appropriate confidentiality, security, and data protection measures and to process personal information only for authorised purposes.

10. Cross-border transfers of personal information

Your personal information may be transferred to, stored, accessed, or processed in countries outside of South Africa where Yoco, its group companies, shareholders, directors, service providers, infrastructure providers, Banking Partners, Card Associations, financial services providers, verification providers, funders, noteholders, investors, or other partners operate.

These transfers may be necessary to:

- provide and support Yoco Services;
- facilitate payments, onboarding, verification, loyalty, communications, fraud prevention, analytics, financing activities, or financial services;
- support group governance, investment, funding, audit, risk, or compliance processes;
- store or process information using cloud or hosted infrastructure; or
- comply with legal, regulatory, or operational requirements.

Where personal information is transferred across borders, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that appropriate security and data protection safeguards are implemented in accordance with applicable law.

11. How secure is your information?

We take reasonable technical, administrative, and organisational measures to protect personal information against loss, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

These measures may include:

- access controls and authentication measures;
- encryption and secure data storage;
- network and infrastructure security controls;
- monitoring and fraud prevention measures; and
- internal policies and procedures governing access to personal information.

Access to personal information is limited to employees, contractors, directors, group companies, Banking Partners, Card Associations, regulators, service providers, advisors, funders, investors, noteholders, authorised partners, and other authorised third parties who require access for legitimate business, operational, financing, governance, legal, regulatory, audit, risk, compliance, or support purposes.

While we take reasonable steps to protect personal information, no method of electronic transmission or storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

12. Retention of information:

We retain personal and business information for as long as reasonably necessary to:

- provide and support Yoco Services;
- comply with legal, regulatory, tax, accounting, audit, fraud prevention, anti-money laundering, sanctions, financing, investment, governance, risk management, due diligence, and recordkeeping obligations;
- resolve disputes or enforce our agreements; and
- support legitimate business, operational, financing, investment, security, analytics, reporting, product development, and commercial purposes.

Retention periods may vary depending on the nature of the information, the purpose for which it was collected, and applicable legal or regulatory requirements.

Where reasonably possible, we may anonymise or de-identify information so that it cannot be associated with an identifiable person. We may retain and use anonymised or de-identified information for research, analytics, statistical, operational, security, and product improvement purposes.

13. Changes to the Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes to our Services, legal or regulatory requirements, or our processing activities.

Where required, we will notify you of changes in accordance with applicable law. The latest version of this Privacy Policy will always be available on our website.

14. Lodging a Complaint

If you believe that we have processed your personal information unlawfully or in breach of this Privacy Policy, please contact us at privacy@yoco.com so that we can investigate and try to resolve your concern.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator of South Africa or another applicable supervisory authority.

Further information is available in our PAIA Manual or on the Information Regulator's website.
