

Stefan Quaderer.

Managing Partner

Stefan Quaderer specializes in providing comprehensive advice to high net worth individuals, executives and entrepreneurs including their asset structures and family offices. One of the focal points of his tasks is the professional assumption of board of directors, foundation board and trustee mandates. He has extensive experience and acts in a multidisciplinary manner in the areas of fiduciary, banking, accounting and taxation. His engagements typically have an international element and, given the complex nature of the assets and fact patterns involved, usually span across multiple jurisdictions, legal systems and asset-holding structures.
