

Lobbying and Advocacy: Organizations and Contributions

This document provides an overview of the associations and coalitions through which the Group engages in lobbying and advocacy activities, contributing to public debate and the development of public policies in line with its purpose, values, and objective of generating a positive impact.

The scope includes exclusively organizations through which the Group engages in interest representation activities aimed at generating a positive impact — whether cultural, environmental, social, or charitable — and that are consistent with the company's principles, values, purpose, and identity.

It therefore does not include all the associations of which the Group is a member or with which it collaborates for other purposes. For the broader list of associations and organizations in which Davines Group participates, please refer to the Sustainability Report, as disclosed in accordance with GRI 2-28.
