

Let's talk about numeracy and financial literacy this November

Professional development

Teaching and learning resources

Research

Family and community learning

Information

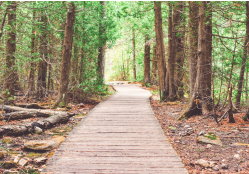

Being literacy friendly

Financial literacy tools

Workplace numeracy

Contact

If you have any questions about the content or links in this calendar please contact your local Regional Literacy Coordinator

		01 Numeracy isn't just maths – it's how we use numbers in everyday life. 	02  Money tools	03 My Budget – MABS 	04 Tip Sheet for Parents – What Do We Mean by Numeracy	05
06  Cost of living supports – CCPC	07 Building your budget plan – CCPC spending calculator	08 Practitioner Pack 	09 Guide to NALA numeracy resources	10 Report – What really counts: case studies of adult numeracy practice in Ireland	11 	12 Have You Got Maths Eyes?
13 Spend less, achieve more: managing money and achieving your goals	14 Developing Maths Trails 	15 Cooking Up Math 	16 Family Math Night – Free Math Resources	17 Making Cents – A tutor's guide to financial literacy	18 A Wealth of Practice: financial numeracy practice in Ireland	19 Basic financial literacy toolkit from Aiseiri Progression Progr.
20  Numeracy Community of Practice	21 National financial literacy strategy resources	22 Are you a spender or a saver?	23 Managing money and keeping it safe 	24 Printable maths worksheets – free registration	25 Brushing up: a maths workbook	26 Everyday maths through fun, interactive games
27 Workbook: Home Math 	28 Workbook: Kitchen Math 	29 Workbook: Money Math 	30 Managing my money – classroom lessons	31  Staying in Control A guide to staying in control of your money, benefits and assets 	A financial wellbeing check	 Helping your child with literacy and numeracy at home