

Let's talk about family literacy this June

Click on the link in each date to access resources.

Videos, podcasts and webinars

Family literacy information for parents and carers.

Research

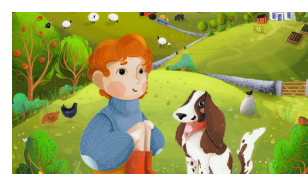

Teaching and learning Resources

Plain English guide for communicating with families

Contact

Click on the link below

If you have any questions about family literacy please contact your local Regional Literacy Coordinator.

| | | | | | | |
|--|---|--|--|--|---|--|
| | | 01    Introduction What is family literacy | 02  Literacy events at your local library | 03   Story Sacks  | 04  Museum Ireland's family events and activities | 05   Make mealtime a family learning time activity book |
| 06   Webwise for information on online safety and digital citizenship. | 07   Cybersafe kids including Essential Digital Parenting Guide  | 08   Resources to create a safer and better internet for kids | 09  Plain English guide for schools | 10  The Inside, Outside, and Upside Downs of Children's Literature: | 11   National Parents' Council courses | 12  Course about early learning at home - for parents |
| 13   Family learning site with lots of resources | 14   Activities for family learning at home from NALA | 15   Schooldays guide to support child's learning and wellbeing | 16  Audio/visual books for children, parents and teachers | 17    SMILE - support for multilingual and intercultural Early years learning | 18  Happy Talk Insects develops speech and language at home | 19   National Geographic for Kids  |
| 20   Podcasts for kids  | 21   Free Wednesdays at OPW heritage sites | 22  Padlet giving examples of activities to do alongside a book | 23  Traveller women created story sacks with their own stories | 24   Two page factsheet for parents to help their kids learn | 25   Report Children's reading for pleasure  | 26  Parents Engaging with Home Literacy and School Supports |
| 27  NALA Research on family literacy from policy to practice. | 28  Involving parents in family learning by Dr Lana McCarthy | 29  Family and intergenerational literacy as social practices. | | | | |