PRIVACY POLICY (FITNESS)

At Frasers Group we view our customer security as paramount. Any personal data you provide to us and from which you can be identified is stored securely and confidentially and is processed in accordance with applicable legislation and this privacy policy, which sets out what personal data we collect about you when you interact with us and how we use your data. We take appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of your personal data, including encrypting your information to applicable industry standards. Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of our site, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone. So you only need to look in one place to find out all you need to know about how Frasers Group collects and processes your personal information, this policy covers our Website (being any website operated by Sportsdirect.com Fitness Limited), our App (being any app operated by Sportsdirect.com Fitness Limited) our clubs and any correspondence you have with Frasers Group in relation to our fitness clubs, products and services. Any changes we make to this policy will be reflected on this page and notified to you by email, where appropriate.

Who we are

As set out in our terms and conditions, this website, the app and our clubs are operated by Sportsdirect.com Fitness Limited, whose registered address is Unit A, Brook Park East, Meadow Lane, Shirebrook, NG20 8RY. Information we may hold about you

When you register to use our Website or App, contact us, use or join our clubs, apply for a job, or enter a competition or promotion run by Frasers Group, we and our partner advertising networks, advertisers and advertising affiliates (Third Party Advertisers), will collect user information such as photo identification, information about your health and fitness, information about your attendance at the club, your name (including title), gender, date of birth, contact details (including social media accounts), log in and payment information. We will also create information relating to you, such as your membership number. If you are a teen or student member and under the age of 18, the information in this policy also applies to you. If you need help to understand what it means for you, please ask a parent /guardian or contact us at the address above.

If you register your child for our Junior Swim Option, in accordance with our membership terms and conditions, you will be asked to provide information about your child including their contact details, age and date of birth, and contacts, emergency contacts and swimming ability.

At our clubs, we use CCTV to monitor and record images for the purposes of security and health and safety, and store the images centrally.

PRIVACY & COOKIES POLICY

When you browse our Website, whether or not you are registered or join our clubs, purchase a product, register to receive our emails or make a job application, we and our third party providers, will collect user information such as your location, language, assumed gender, IP address, when you visit our Website, how you arrive on our Website, where you visit after our Website, the pages you visit on our Website, how long you spend browsing individual pages on our Website, how you interact with our Website, any products you have purchased, and the browser and device you used to access our Website. In circumstances where you contact us by telephone, calls may be recorded for quality, training and security purposes. Calls may also be monitored for the following reasons: to provide evidence of a business transaction; to prevent or detect crime; to ensure that Frasers Group complies with regulatory procedures; to see that quality standards or targets are being met; and, to secure the effective operation of the telecom system.

If you apply for a job via our Website, you will be directed to a third party site, PeopleBank, which will collect your application information on our behalf, including in relation to your right to work, unspent criminal convictions or pending prosecutions, that you are over 16 and have completed compulsory education, any CV you choose to upload, your contact details, log in information, date of birth, National Insurance number, driving licence status, and employment history. Please read and agree to PeopleBank's privacy policy which is available on its website.

How we may use your personal data

We may use your personal data in the following ways:

- to fulfil your membership – we require your identification, contact, payment and health information in order to enter into the membership agreement with you and are unable to do so without this information (please note that your details may need to be passed to another company within Frasers Group and/or a third party in order for them to supply or deliver the membership or product that you purchased and we may retain your details for a reasonable period of time after you have ended your membership or use of the product in order to fulfil any contractual obligations such as refunds and to meet any legal obligations for the retention of transactional data);
- to provide you with information about the operation of our clubs and other service updates or changes to our service by the most appropriate means;
- to tell you about similar products and services, or products and services that you ask us to send you information about, by email, post, mobile, telephone and/or through other digital means (depending on your stated preferences) including social media platforms;
- to provide you with services you request from us;
- to enable you to use the full functionality on our Website, including interactive features, when you choose to do so;
- to register you on the Website or App (where this involves setting you up with an account, we will use your personal information to maintain and update your account (e.g. such as a change of address or change in your marketing preferences));
- to administer our Website or App;
- to analyse, and improve, the use of our Website, App and product/service offering, including how you move around our Website or your activity in-club;
- to administer any competition run by Frasers Group. Please refer to the specific terms and conditions for each competition;

PRIVACY & COOKIES POLICY

- to measure and analyse our advertising;
- to make suggestions and recommendations to you, other users of our Website and users of our Third Party Advertisers about products or services that may interest you or them;
- to keep in touch with you regarding your marketing preferences;
- to keep our Website, App and network safe and secure;
- to process payments and prevent fraudulent transactions – we may pass your details to a third party to carry out these functions);
- to assess and process your job application, and for subsequent employment, legal and administrative purposes.

We process this data where you have given us consent to use it, where it is necessary to perform our contract, to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract, where required by law or in pursuit of our legitimate interests where these are not overridden by your rights and interests, such as to provide appropriate marketing and to maintain our services.

How long we keep your information

We will not keep your personal information for any purpose(s) for longer than is necessary and we will only retain the relevant personal information that is necessary in relation to the purpose. We are also required to retain certain information by law or if it is reasonably necessary to meet regulatory requirements, resolve disputes, prevent fraud and abuse, or enforce our terms and conditions; we may also retain some of your personal information for a limited period of time, even after you have ended your membership.

For example, we will retain the personal information you provided on joining as a member so long as your membership remains in existence. After your membership ends, we will retain your personal information for marketing purposes so long as you have indicated your consent to this. We will also retain certain limited personal information such as your name, email address and postal address until you ask us to update or delete those details for the purpose of reporting new and existing users to our affiliate advertisers and for processing claims under the Direct Debit Guarantee. We will retain information regarding your website browsing history for a similar period. In the case of any contact you may have with our customer care team, we will retain those details for as long as is necessary to resolve your query and for a short period after the query is closed. We retain CCTV recordings centrally for 30 days, and for a longer period if they are relevant to an incident, complaint, investigation or legal proceedings.

We will retain information relating to any job application for as long as it takes to process your application and, if it is unsuccessful, for an additional period of around 6 months. If your application is successful, your information will be retained in accordance with our staff privacy policy. We will retain your information for a short time beyond the specified retention period, to allow for information to be reviewed and any deletion to take place.

PRIVACY & COOKIES POLICY

How we might share your personal data

We may share your personal data with:

- Other companies in Frasers Group which means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and its subsidiaries, as defined in section 1159 of the UK Companies Act 2006 (this includes individual fitness clubs as appropriate);
- Our professional advisers, including, without limitation, our insurers;
- Our suppliers, business partners and sub-contractors;
- Our Third Party Advertisers and advertising networks; and,
- Search engine and web analytics providers.

You can find out more information about the third parties with which we may share your personal data here.

In the event that we were to sell our business or assets, we may disclose your information to any prospective/actual purchaser and/or their advisers.

We may also disclose your personal data where we are subject to a legal obligation to do so, in connection with the prevention or detection of crime, for the purpose of establishing, exercising or defending our legal rights, or where we consider that we receive a valid request for disclosure. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

You should be aware that if we are requested by the police or any other regulatory or government authority investigating suspected illegal activities to provide your personal information or any other information we obtain about you, we are entitled to do so.

Our Website and App may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of third parties. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any information to these websites.

Where we store your personal data

The information that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff operating outside the EEA who work for us or for one of our suppliers. Where we do so, the third country's data protection laws will have been approved as adequate by the European Commission, or other applicable safeguards are in place.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. You can exercise your right to prevent such processing by checking certain boxes on the forms we use to collect your data, clicking the unsubscribe button on any communication we have sent to you, by accessing the customer preference centre or by contacting us.

To exercise these rights, we need to be suitably satisfied of your identity and so may request you provide identification documents or confirm other details we may hold about you (such as a recent delivery reference or address).

Where you have consented to us using your personal data, you can withdraw that consent at any time. If the information we hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete, you can notify us and ask us to correct or supplement it.

You also have the right, with some exceptions, to ask us to provide a copy of any personal data we hold about you. If you chose to exercise this right, then in certain circumstances any access request may be subject to a fee to meet our costs in providing you with details of the information we hold about you. From 25 May 2018, if you have a complaint about how we have handled your personal data, you may be able to ask us to restrict how we use your personal data while your complaint is resolved. In some circumstances you can ask us to erase your personal data if you withdraw your consent, it is no longer necessary for us to use your personal data, you object to the use of your personal data and we don't have a good reason to continue to use it, or we haven't handled your personal data in accordance with our obligations.

To exercise these rights or if you have any queries or concerns regarding how we use your personal data, please write to Data Protection, Unit A, Brook Park East, Shirebrook, NG20 8RY. If you are not happy with our response, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office: <https://ico.org.uk/>

A list of all the cookies that we, our advertising network and technology partners use can be found in our Cookie List details of which are below.

PRIVACY & COOKIES POLICY

How we use Cookies and other tracking technologies

We use a combination of our own cookies, third party cookies and other tracking technologies to

- enhance your browsing experience and to enable our Website and app to function efficiently. In particular, we use cookies to:
- enable you to set up an account, place orders and make payments;
- remember items you place into your shopping basket;
- remember items you have been looking at so that you can quickly and easily go back to an item you looked at previously;
- enhance and personalise your shopping experience.
- Search engine and web analytics providers.

The default setting on your web browser is to prohibit cookies, but you may have changed this during the installation process. You can also choose which cookies Frasers Group places on your computer when you access our Website and can manage this in our preference centre. Further information on cookies, including instructions on how to amend your browser settings to turn off cookies, is available widely online. However, if you disable or delete certain cookies you may not be able to shop or access important parts of our Website.
