

Most fake accounts, have very few connections and not much content other than their “AFA work experience.”

When you get a request from a fake profile, go to the profile and click “more.”

Choose “Report/Block.”

Start by reporting the profile as not representing a real individual.

We’d also suggest you go back and block the profile after you finish this step.

