

Advantages of the New DivorceMate Cloud

Explore the benefits you can enjoy with the new DivorceMate Cloud platform.

INTEGRATION WITH MICROSOFT WORD

The ability to create cloud-based Forms and Agreements in Microsoft Word means that users now have significantly more control over their documents with full formatting and editing capabilities. Plus, the new DivorceMate Cloud documents in Word can easily be shared with clients, staff and other legal professionals.

AI INTEGRATION

LawY is an AI legal assistant that generates responses to legal questions. The responses can be verified by qualified Canadian lawyers. LawY can assist users with legal research, drafting documents, reviewing case law or legislation as well as proofreading, grammar checking and summarizing information.

INCREASED FLEXIBILITY

With internet access, your DivorceMate files will be available anywhere, and any time. You will be able to access your files from your office, home, court, mediator's office, cottage - anywhere you want to work! You can also access your files using any device - desktop, laptop, Mac, or smartphone.

REDUCED IT TIME AND COSTS

Say goodbye to updates and complicated network setups. All software updates are automatically done by us behind the scenes so you will always have the most current software. This means no interruptions to your practice and no need to involve an IT Specialist.

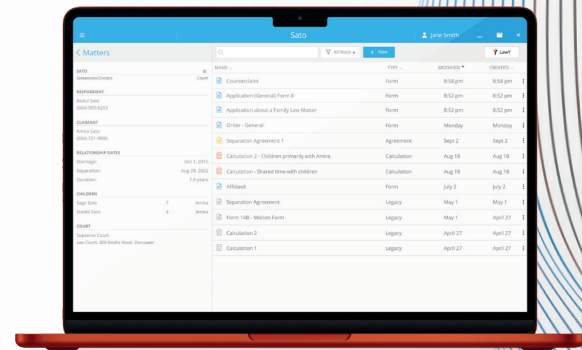

SUPERIOR SECURITY

Your files are maintained in a safe and secure environment in Canada, protected and backed up on a daily basis. We chose the Microsoft Azure platform as our cloud provider - one of the leaders in cloud technology. Microsoft hosts sensitive data for the world's largest corporations, banks, and governments, and goes to extreme measures to ensure all information is kept secure. In addition, DivorceMate has engaged the services of a leading 3rd party cloud security firm to undertake additional scanning and testing of our cloud platform to ensure your data is protected.

IMPROVED CUSTOMER CARE

With increased productivity and more flexibility comes better service and care for your clients because you can focus your time and energy on what you do best - providing important value-added legal services.
