KILLIAN KEOGH

DO YOU HAVE A NICKNAME?

My nickname is Killer, wether it be in work or at football that’s what everyone knows me as.

Anytime time I get called by my given name I know I’m in trouble!

FAV SONG OR SINGER AT THE MINUTE?

At the minute it’s probably Pink Pony Club by Chappell Roan, there’s even a dance to go with it, IYKYK.

I’ve been known to sing a bit of Robbie Williams when doing Karaoke too!

TELL US... WHICH FOOTBALL TEAM DO YOU SUPPORT?

I support Liverpool but my true love is Dublin GAA. I travel up and down Ireland watching them play.

I still play Gaelic Football and coach a juvenile team for my local club Ballyfermot Gaels.

A great coach of mine once told me “There’s only one superstar on this team, and that’s me.” so I try use that to keep my young charges humble as they start out on their football journeys.

AND FINALLY, WHAT’S YOUR INDUSTRY SUPERPOWER?

I would say adaptability. I’m going into my sixth year here at Fortus having started in the Build Room, moved through the Warehouse, Trade Counter and then into Sales.

It gives you an understanding of how everything works and it lets you jump from one to the other when someone else on the team needs a hand to get over the line.

I think that also show’s if you want it and show the initiative the world is your oyster!
