Guided by the beauty of native flora, the earthy characteristics of saltbush add a hint of natural indulgence to any space.
