As an interior stylist and avid traveller, I've had the privilege of immersing myself in different cultures and lifestyles around the world.

I often reminisce about my most memorable travel experiences, and love to translate them into my work. So, I was naturally thrilled to team up with kaboodle for their 'experiences of the world at home' trend release.

Join me as I explore ways to achieve a designer-look kitchen for less. Happy designing!

Trends Range

experiences of the world at home

Welcome to the latest kaboodle kitchen trends range, where we explore the design possibilities of our ever-popular DIY-friendly kitchens and more.

The colours, materials, and textures in our homes can profoundly impact the way we think and feel. Inspired by travel stories, a renewed sense of adventure, and a yearning for nostalgia, our trends range encourages reflection on the cultures we embrace, the people we connect with, the moments we celebrate, and the indulgences we enjoy along the way.

Join us, along with the incredibly talented Jono Fleming, as we introduce six amazing colours across four key trends. Check out expert styling that can be applied in wonderful ways, from subtle touches to bold statements.

Embracing colour and achieving a designer-look kitchen that reflects your personal style has never been easier. Once you've found one you like, make it your own using our online 3D kaboodle planner, or book a design consultation with a kitchen expert at Bunnings.

As we spread our wings and venture abroad once more, inspiration cultivated from these experiences influence the materials, colours and patterns used throughout our home.

Indulge is all about creating distinctive interiors that emulate a sense of European opulence. Incorporating the decadent, burgundy red hues of paprika with the whimsical, soft pink tones of candy floss, allows us to embrace old school charm and create an exciting visual wonderland.

celebrate

Looking towards the future with optimism, vibrant colourways are being used to encourage a fun and elated mood, celebrating all the worldly experiences we cherish.

The lively tones of mostaza will help unlock a desire for exploration, creating an exciting environment that's full of visual flavour, reminiscent of a bustling street market in South America.

This trend is all about celebrating life; like sharing foreign cuisine or special times with loved ones at home.
