Application: Junior Estate Agent Role at Foxtons

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Junior Estate Agent role at Foxtons. Although I am new to the property industry, I bring with me a solid foundation in customer engagement, a strong academic background in marketing, and a genuine enthusiasm for the fast-paced world of real estate.

What attracts me most to Foxtons is your reputation for energy, innovation, and your unique approach to client service. Your use of technology and emphasis on professional development make Foxtons an ideal environment for someone like me, who is eager to learn, highly motivated, and committed to going the extra mile for clients.

I recently graduated with a degree in Business and Marketing, where I developed a keen interest in property markets and consumer behaviour. I've spent time studying how agencies like Foxtons leverage branding, data, and presentation to stand out in a competitive market. In parallel, I've built experience in customer-facing roles, most recently as a Sales Assistant at John Lewis, where I consistently exceeded personal sales targets and was praised for my problem-solving and communication skills.

I am confident that my client-centric mindset, adaptability, and willingness to learn would make me a strong fit at Foxtons. I'm ready to roll up my sleeves, hit the phones, and support the team in delivering the excellent service your clients expect.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to contribute to your success and develop into a skilled agent under Foxtons' guidance.

Kind regards,
Laura Malik
