Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Account Manager position at Miro, as advertised on your website. As a recent graduate with a degree in business management from London University, I am excited to begin my career and believe that my education, enthusiasm, and strong communication skills make me an excellent candidate for this role.

During my time at university, I developed a passion for building relationships and delivering exceptional customer service through my coursework and extracurricular activities. As a member of the culture club, I collaborated with team members to plan and execute events that attracted over 300 participants. This experience taught me the importance of strategic planning, clear communication, and attention to detail—skills that I am eager to bring to the Account Manager position at Miro.

I am particularly drawn to your company because of your commitment to innovation and customer satisfaction. I am impressed by your recent initiatives and I would love the opportunity to contribute to such forward-thinking projects. I am confident that my proactive approach, strong organisational skills, and ability to adapt quickly would allow me to effectively manage client relationships and support your team in achieving its goals.

Although I am just starting out in my career, I am eager to learn and am committed to growing as a professional within your company. I am excited about the opportunity to leverage my skills and passion to contribute to your team and help deliver outstanding results for your clients.

Thank you! I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can bring value to Miro as your next Account Manager.

Sincerely,

Ben Langham
