

WEDDING PLANNERS

At Ashridge House, every couple is paired with an experienced wedding coordinator dedicated to supporting you through each stage of your wedding planning from the Venue. Additionally, you are welcome to also engage an external wedding planner to bring your unique vision to life.

Your Ashridge House coordinator will guide;

- Seating arrangements
- Planning timelines
- Organising menu tastings, and more.

An external planner can offer;

- Personalised guidance on styling
- Décor options
- Bespoke details tailored to your vision

Together, our team and your planner will collaborate seamlessly to ensure that every element of your celebration is flawlessly executed.

We have carefully curated a selection of three exceptional wedding planners who have previously worked at Ashridge House and have an in-depth understanding of our unique, Grade I listed venue.

- Ann Nicholas Weddings
- Spires Linton
- Vivienne May Weddings

Each of these planners has been chosen for their expertise, creativity, and commitment to bringing your wedding vision to life while respecting the historic beauty and character of Ashridge.

By working with one of our recommended planners, you can rest assured that your day will flow smoothly, with every detail thoughtfully executed to complement the elegance and heritage of our stunning setting.

Award Winning Luxury Wedding Planner

Hi! I'm Ann, creator of Ann Nicholas Weddings

Congratulations on choosing the stunning and historic Ashridge House to host your wedding. Ashridge has become one of my favourite venues to work in because of its beauty and versatility, allowing each couple to use the various spaces offered in their own unique way.

Having now planned many weddings at Ashridge, I have not only developed a great working relationship with the entire team, but also understand the intricacies of working at this grade 1 listed building.

With over 10 years experience in managing and designing weddings of all shapes and sizes, I will work with you to create the wedding you want. Blending your vision with my meticulous planning, coupled with my terrifyingly detailed spreadsheets, to produce an exquisite wedding day.

Extraordinary events don't happen by accident. No matter whether you come to me with a full Pinterest board and a strict brief, a few notes scribbled on a napkin, or nothing at all, I will guide you through the wedding planning process, with creativity and care

With a brilliant network of the best suppliers in the industry, I pride myself on being able to match every client with the right supplier for their style.

I'm all about innovation, beauty, honesty and ultimately - fun, whilst striving to create cool, classy, one-off weddings that reflect you as a couple.

Full Planning Service

Working with you from the very beginning of your planning journey, right up until you wave the last guest goodbye, I will be there to oversee each and every aspect of your wedding.

Starting with an initial consultation session so I can understand exactly what you want from your wedding day. I will support you in defining your vision, sourcing and coordinating the best suppliers, bringing together your dream team, and creating your perfect day.

With this service you are free to focus on as much or as little of the planning process as you want - the rest can be safely left in my hands, with you having the final sign off on everything.

Although each proposal is bespoke, support will include: Sourcing & management of all suppliers, advising on ceremony style/location, production of all plans, schedules and timelines, full styling, financial management, wedding day management, personal advice and guidance throughout. Regular Zoom progress meetings are also included as standard.

Final Month Management Service

Perfect if you are keeping an eye on the budget (or just like to stay in control)! My final month management service is like having a wedding superhero by your side, leaving you more time to pamper yourself in these important final few weeks, and of course practise the all all important first dance!

After our first chat, we shall rendezvous again about 6 weeks before your big day for a complete handover. I will whip up a detailed wedding day timeline and become your supplier whisperer.

On the big day, I will be the maestro behind the scenes, ensuring your venue is set up flawlessly and giving high-fives to all your suppliers. I will ensure everything goes off without a hitch, just as you'd planned it.

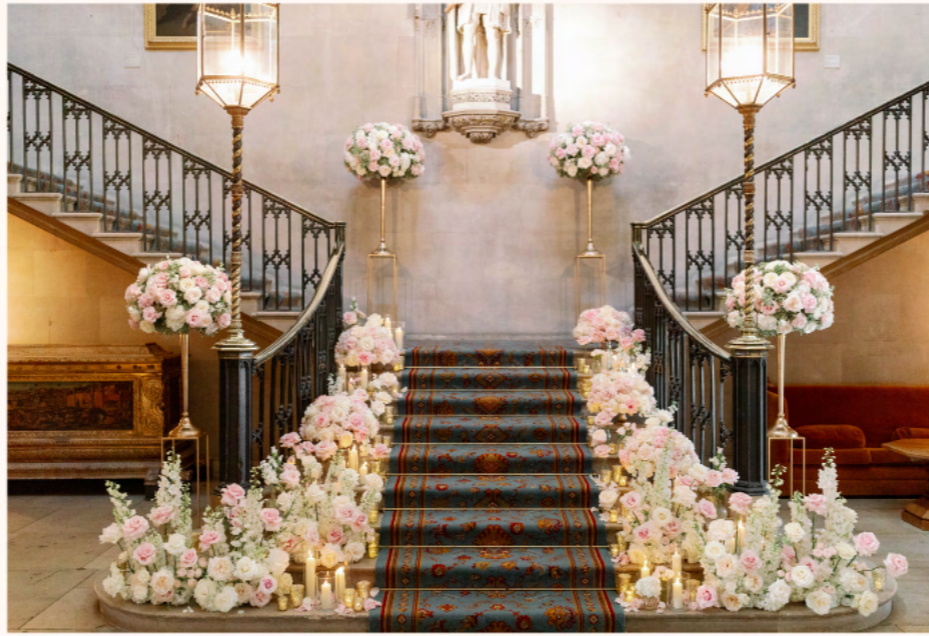

I come prepared with an emergency kit fit for any wedding curveball—from baby wipes to eyelash glue, sewing kit to first aid kit, deodorant to blister plasters : I've got you!

This really is your time to shine, so kick back, savour every moment, and instead of putting mum on duty, let me take the reins. A professional, friendly touch can really make your day sparkle!

LOVE

FROM PREVIOUS COUPLES

"Simply put – without Kerrie from Vivienne May, our wedding would not have been possible. Her hard work and professionalism had our guests commenting how our wedding was the best event they had ever been to. From the start, Kerrie removed much of the planning burden and injected fun back into the process. She took my wife's vision and responded with appropriate ideas and suppliers, all within the budget we laid out at the beginning. She was easily approachable, and she often made us feel like our wedding was her top priority (which I am sure is how all her clients feel). She clearly takes pride in her work, and it was truly a pleasure having her plan our wedding..."

C & B

"I just wanted to write and say an enormous thank you to you for being such a wonderful help for E and J's wedding. We could not have had a better person organising and co-ordinating everything. It was lovely having you working with us for the second family wedding too – as we feel we know you now and it undoubtedly helped overall with familiarity. Your professionalism, and personal calm helpful manner combine to create a seamless, stress-free plan and execution and all done with grace and humour! It was the happiest day, full of joy – and part of that was being confident that you had everything in hand."

E & J

"From the moment we met with Kerrie to discuss her being our wedding planner, we knew our big day was going to be everything we wanted it to be. Kerrie throughout our entire process was so organised and efficient in pulling together ideas, or following up on desires, never was anything missed. She made planning the wedding fun, while we continued to wrestle with our jobs and at the time move house also! We've had so many compliments from friends and family from our wedding and all of these needed to be shared with Kerrie, as it was her at the helm, allowing us to feel like the guests of honour rather than the hosts. Kerrie thank you so much, we'll forever be indebted to you for making it the best day of our lives."
