

Light Projections

1 Sara Choudhrey Samara

A gobo projection which champions biodiversity through patterns, forms and geometry rooted in nature and science.

3 Amy Jackson (In)visible Network

A pair of floor projections which highlight the interconnected systems that sustain life beneath our feet.

8 Auda Sakho Spectral Wardrobe

A pair of floor projections which show natural materials transformed into a poetic light installation. Live activation at 6:00pm-6:30pm.

Light Installations

2 Linett Kamala Basstone Maypole

A light installation which celebrates music and dance. The artist invites you to join her at the Maypole at 6pm, 7pm and 8pm. Booking not necessary.

4 Hannah Whittaker Bioluminescent Garden UV Edition

A UV light installation created with and for the local community, celebrating the promise of spring.

5 toyStudio In Bloom

A geometric sculpture and light installation inspired by the forms of stellated polyhedra.

6 Amber Stefani Seed of Life

An immersive light installation inspired by sacred geometry found throughout nature.

7 Chila Burman Flying Hanuman | Bow & Arrow

Two neon works inspired by Hindu iconography: Hanuman, a deity of strength and courage, and a Bow and Arrow.

9 Daphne Ting-Yu Chu & Shu Ang Yeh Natural Concerto

An interactive sound and light installation which releases recordings of local ecological sounds collected from Kilburn Grange Park.

10 Daisy Doig Windows

Four Kilburn windows re-created at almost full scale using neon glass; the work aims to highlight women's nighttime safety and the feeling of relief when seeing light in a window.
