

FAQs – Saga tours, operated by Titan

Who is Titan Travel?

Titan Travel is the UK's most awarded tour operator, and they've been innovating and leading escorted tours for over 45 years. They've been wholly owned by Saga since 2009, and today travel to every continent in the world, including Antarctica. Titan never stops working to introduce new tours, improve existing ones, and bring new experiences into their holidays, and their 'adventures made effortless' throughout Europe and the world have all the Saga hallmarks we know our customers love - high quality, excellent service and great value.

Why are Saga tours being operated by Titan Travel?

Titan Travel was bought by Saga back in 2009, so they're already part of the family. With their great reputation in the travel industry for quality, itineraries led by the best tour managers in the business, it made sense for us to join forces with our sister-company and bring all our travel and touring expertise together in one range.

Who is leading the tours, Saga or Titan?

All Saga tours are now operated by Titan Travel, which means Titan staff will be looking after you throughout your trip. But you'll book with Saga, and if you have any questions at any time, we're on hand to help. Titan tour managers are available 24-hours a day when you're abroad and are supported around the clock by the Saga team here in the UK.

Will all the customers be aged 50 or over?

No, Titan has customers of all ages so you may be travelling with some people who are under 50. But everyone on the tour will have chosen the same itinerary and be looking forward to the same adventures, so you'll be travelling with people who share similar interests in places, cultures and experiences.

Are the tour groups larger?

No, the group sizes are exactly the same. The average number of passengers on an escorted tour is 35, although groups can occasionally be larger, up to about 48 guests. If you want to travel in a smaller group, our Small Group tours have a maximum of 25 people, and some as few as 14.

What will be different?

Although you'll book your tour with Saga, you'll be travelling with a Titan tour manager, the coaches will say Titan on the front and, if you're flying out of the UK, there'll be a Titan rep at the airport. Your fellow travellers might have booked through Titan, Saga or a travel agent, but you'll be with like-minded people who share the same passion for travel and desire to explore.

Are the tours slower paced?

All our tours are paced from 1-3 to give you an idea of how active they are - you can see the ratings on the individual tour descriptions. If you're looking for a more active or adventurous itinerary, a Small Group tour is usually faster paced. With fewer people, the group can do more, and visit places that would be hard to get to with a bigger group.

Is the quality the same?

Absolutely. Titan Travel is part of the Saga family, and our shared commitment to the highest standards of quality and value for money shines through every tour in the collection.
