OUR SUPPLIER, CASTELNAU WINE AGENCIES

Castelnaud Wine Agencies was established in 1981 to import the fine Burgundy wines of Patriarche Père et Fils to the UK, Keith Isaac joined the company in 1987 and passed the rigorous Master of Wine exams in 1989 (enabling him to use the initials 'M.W.' after his name). Keith evolved the trading style to Patriarche Wine Agencies, to reflect the growing agency portfolio. The company was bought by Champagne Castelnaud in 2013 and the Castelnaud range, and winemaker Carine Bailleul, continue to gain recognition for fantastic quality, borne out by accolades and awards at the highest level globally. Keith still holds the reins at Castelnaud Wine Agencies today and their excellent portfolio covers the world's major wine regions. The company has a long history of supplying wines to the premium cruise and airline sectors and is delighted to be working with Ambassador.

Our onboard wines have been selected by Mr Keith Isaac M.W.
