

Right where you want to be

Green Falls Landing
RETIREMENT LIVING

Live the life you love.

With its campus-style retirement look, set on seven acres in suburban Regina, Green Falls Landing is perfect for active living nestled in a vibrant community.

You'll feel right at home, just with more services and less responsibilities. Wherever you find yourself – whether strolling the greenspace or enjoying a laugh in the pub – it's a feeling of fun, friendship and relaxation.

Here, you're not a resident, you're part of a family. There's always something to do. Relax in our outdoor patio, enjoy a vegetable from our raised garden or refine your short game on the putting green. That's life at Green Falls Landing.

Life is great when the food is too.

From the moment your day starts, great food helps fuel an active life.

Our expert chefs make your meals from scratch daily with fresh ingredients that are seasonal and local. You'll love the variety found on the menu, and you'll really love the way great food sparks great conversation with family and friends.

Imagine a full-service dining room with your certified Red Seal Director of Culinary creating and offering a menu right under your own roof.

Satisfy your cravings with freshly prepared, delicious food in our restaurant-style dining room with a variety of meals and à la carte selections. For something more casual, sample the fare at the licensed pub with fireside lounge.

Active Living is all about choice.

Maintaining your physical, mental, and emotional health is key to retirement living. Active Living programs take a holistic approach, based on 7 core dimensions of wellness that fuel the body, mind, and soul. And while they're designed with you in mind, they're also fun and engaging activities that will bring new vigour to life and help you meet new friends in the community.
