Preventive dental care

When people feel supported to stay on top of their health, they're more likely to thrive physically, mentally, and financially. And when your team thrives, so does your company. Our proactive approach to oral health helps prevent unexpected dental issues that can lead to time off work. A dental plan isn't just a perk, it's one of the most impactful ways to show your commitment to your team's long-term health and happiness.

Ongoing support

We provide a range of services and features to help make sure that you get maximum value from your investment in your employees' dental health.

Account management

We provide an account manager who will be your single point of contact. They will help with the implementation and ongoing maintenance of your plan. Your account manager will stay in touch regularly so they can provide a service shaped around your needs. They will provide ideas and solutions to help promote the dental plan in your organisation.

Marketing support

We help you launch your dental plan to employees, with communications that drive employee interest and engagement. Wellbeing promotion plays a huge part in encouraging employees to maintain their everyday health and performance. We provide co-ordinated campaigns that reinforce the importance of keeping healthy to perform well.

Detailed management information

We keep you informed with meaningful analytics on the performance of your dental plan so, together, we can evaluate progress and programme effectiveness to further support your employees' dental health. All of this is provided regularly, not just at renewal, so you can rely on support from day one onwards.
