KAOS® ENDELØS REDEFINES THE WALL BAR

The inspiration for KAOS® Endeløs comes from our own childhoods. Growing up in Scandinavia in the 1980s, it was common to have gymnastic wall bars installed at home as an indoor activity developing gross motor skills. When our own kids entered the “climbing phase” around age two, we knew firsthand the benefits of having a wall bar at home – to stimulate motor skills, balance, and confidence.

But we also saw something more. By merging the traditional wall bar with Scandinavian design heritage – simplicity, functionality, and beauty in perfect harmony – we created Endeløs: a modular concept that adapts, evolves, and grows alongside your child.

Endeløs is Norwegian for Endless, and with KAOS® Endeløs you truly get endless possibilities.

– Ginline Kalleberg, CO-Founder of KAOS®

DEVELOPED FOR KIDS.
DESIGNED FOR YOU.

Children don't just love to climb – they need it. Climbing builds strength, balance, and confidence.

The Endeløs bars are thoughtfully designed to fit small hands, giving them a safe, solid grip. Crafted from durable ash wood and finished with natural oil, Endeløs is made to last – easy to clean, easy to care for, ready to be loved for years.

WARNINGS

When assembled as wall bars for kids to climb and hang on, KAOS Endeløs must be assembled vertically standing on the floor and should not hang freely on the wall.

When KAOS Endeløs accessories are added to the wall bar, such as textile shelves or desktop, KAOS Endeløs is no longer an activity toy and hanging/ climbing is not recommended.

Keep this manual in case you want to rebuild your wall bar. A digital manual is also available at itskaos.com.
