ARC Peaks

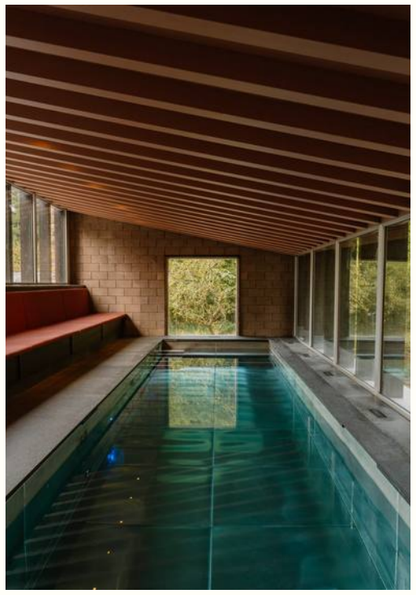

Wild rivers, roaring fires and the call of the great outdoors. Retreat or adventure at this former printworks in the heart of the Peak District.

Meticulously restored with a striking contemporary extension, ARC Peaks is designed to host large groups of 30 people. From family celebrations to corporate away-days or wellness retreats, the house offers something for everyone with a huge dining room and activity space, an indoor pool, alfresco kitchen and wood-fired hot tub.

Peaks

Wildboarclough, named with a nod to England's rich hunting history, is an idyllic village in a scenic Peak District valley. It's the perfect base to explore the area's wild beauty, with rugged dales, roaring rivers and views that stretch forever. Popular towns Macclesfield and Buxton are just a short drive away.
