NT Learning Adventures Save and Learn program

The 85th anniversary of the Bombing of Darwin will be commemorated on February 19, 2027. It marks the historic day in 1942 when Japanese forces launched the largest single attack ever mounted by a foreign power on Australian soil.

Any Australian school group, from outside the Northern Territory (NT), is invited to submit an application for funding to support their NT school tour. The planned excursion simply needs to meet the following requirements:

- minimum of 10 students in the group
- staying at least five nights in the in the NT
- the itinerary must include the 85th Anniversary Bombing of Darwin commemorations and three or more military NT Learning Adventures (NTLA) operators that have a Military focus (excluding accommodation and other services). Alternatively, itineraries delivered by an NTLA operator that include extended cultural immersion elements in remote communities may also be eligible (at the discretion of Tourism and Events NT). A list of current NTLA partners can be found at ntlearningadventures.com.

School tours that are attending the 85th Commemoration of the Bombing of Darwin on the February 19, 2027 are eligible for $5,000 (plus GST) funding for the first five groups that apply and confirm travel over this date.

APPLICATION

All applications must be received at least four weeks prior to travel. Late applications may not be accepted. The application is to be provided by email to education.tourismeventsnt@nt.gov.au and must include:

- completed and signed 'NTLA Save and Learn program' application form
- a detailed itinerary, highlighting the main activities, day by day
- paid deposit/invoice proving commitment to travel

APPROVAL

All successful applications will receive an approval notice via email, a reference number and instructions on how to claim.

PAYMENT

The pre-approved funding is claimed after the group has completed their excursion. The funding is paid directly to the school by sending the final itinerary, evidence of payments made to at least three NTLA operators and an invoice to Tourism and Events NT, as per the instructions provided in the approval email. All invoices must be received by Tourism and Events NT no later than 10 days after the group has returned. Late invoices may not be paid.

The school must notify Tourism and Events NT if the planned excursion is amended or cancelled. Prior to making payment, Tourism and Events NT will seek confirmation that travel was completed as per the itinerary provided during application.

Tourism and Events NT reserves the right to change the terms and conditions or terminate the program as required.
