& Private Dining Room

Like its venerable predecessor on the Champs-Élysées, founded in 1899, Fouquet's New York exudes the sophistication and historic glamour of a classic Parisian brasserie. Located on the ground floor, the restaurant is cloaked in the trademark red and black palette of Fouquet's Paris, with high-gloss wood paneling on the walls, parquet floors, curved leather banquettes, and cut-glass chandeliers. The menu at Fouquet's New York offers traditional brasserie fare similar to the Paris original — but with a New York riff.

TITSOU BAR

With its candlelit tables, exclusive ambience, and dazzling interiors, Titsou Bar evokes Paris in the 1920s and '30s. Named in homage to Lucien Barrière — the founder of Groupe Barrière, affectionately called “Titsou” by his daughter Diane — the bar is the setting for private tête-à-têtes and buzzing New York soirées, drawing inspiration from Bar Marta, the famed speakeasy at Fouquet’s Paris. At the marble-topped bar, lit by Art Deco-style lamps, our bartenders mix innovative cocktails that will awaken the senses and spark your curiosity — offering the promise of lively conversations and memorable evenings.
