WELCOME to Cannes

The relationship between Cannes and film is an epic romance that has been going strong since 1946, with the Cannes Film Festival almost single-handedly catapulting the city to worldwide fame.

But in a location that has kept hold of all its authentic Provencal charm, visiting Cannes is about so much more than treading the red carpet. Read on for insights into our kid's clubs and the many family-friendly activities on offer at our Resort.

Welcome to the Cannes Barrière Resort, where we pour heart and soul into turning your stay into an unforgettable experience.

The DESTINATION

PROVENÇAL MARKETS

Cannes' bustling, colorful local markets offer fresh, quality goods and home-grown produce for a delicious taste of the Côte d'Azur!

Tuesday to Sunday, 7am to 1pm.

LA CROIX DES GARDES

A stay in Cannes is an opportunity to lose yourself in lush greenery, with trips out to explore surrounding countryside rich in diversity and history. Soak up the region's breathtaking beauty on a stroll set to the chirping of the cicadas at the Croix des Gardes.

HIKES & RAMBLES

Get insights into local walks and hikes, whether you'd like to explore on foot or by mountain bike, electric bike, road bike or electric scooter, all available at L'Hôtel Barrière Le Gray d'Albion. Ask our team for help picking the right circuit for you based on length, difficulty level and starting point.

THE LÉRINS ISLANDS

Hop aboard a boat for a unique 15-minute sail out to these incredible islands, where 16 centuries of religious, cultural, natural and historical heritage converge.

For information and booking, ask your hotel concierge.

NATURE TRAIL & CULTURAL OUTING TO SAINTE-MARGUERITE ISLAND

Embark on a relaxing, immersive trip into the untouched wilderness, where nature and culture are the order of the day. History buffs and legend hunters will enjoy touring the Musée du Fort Royal et du Masque de Fer: home to Roman cisterns, underwater ruins and archaeological vestiges, as well as the former state prisons and the Man in the Iron Mask's cell.

WINE-MAKING WITH THE MONKS OF SAINT HONORAT ISLAND

Lérins Abbey runs guided tours to deepen your understanding of Saint-Honorat Island, home to five historic monuments and a listed heritage site since 1941. Saint Honorat's eight hectares of vineyards are tended to by the Lérins Abbey monks—the stewards of ancestral wine-making techniques that are still in use to this day.

FRAGRANCE WORKSHOPS IN GRASSE

An elegant workshop to guide you through the process of crafting your very own perfume. Guided by a professional 'nose', learn about the raw materials used in perfumery, the different olfactory families and the architecture of fragrance-making before blending your own unique scent.

VALLAURIS CERAMIC WORKSHOPS

Learn the art and craft of ceramics with a deep dive into all things enamel, earthenware, clay and stoneware. Get to grips with the lingo before dipping into a host of creative techniques, from modeling and stamping to throwing and glazing, and leave with a beautiful, one-of-a-kind piece.

For information and booking, ask your hotel concierge.

TOURS OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL INLAND VILLAGES

These perched villages are built into the rock itself, with each boasting its own unique flavor and past. Lost in a tangle of mimosas, vines and olive groves, these villages are a must for visitors seeking authentic beauty.

- Saint-Paul-de-Vence, an artist's paradise
- Quirky Eze
- Gourdon and its châteaux
- Vieux-Cagnes, where time stands still
- Picture-perfect Fayence and Tournettes
- Seillans, one of France's most beautiful villages
- Callian, the 'snail on the hill'
- Tanneron, the mimosa queen

EXPLORE OUR WINE ROUTES

Drink in Provence's wine estates for an up-close-and-personal experience of the vineyards in a refreshing take on France's unique heritage. Ramble through breathtaking landscapes and marvel at Provence's lush, green inland country, while sampling everything the region's wines have to offer, from Côtes de Provence and Bellet, to Coteaux Varois en Provence, Bandol, and beyond.

GOLF

A firm favorite with golfers, Cannes' 11 perfectly manicured golf courses and fairways unfurl in a sea of luscious greens set against the glittering blue of the waves and sky. All are nestled in incredible settings, brought to life by the French Riviera's sumptuous light, with most offering sweeping views over Cannes Bay and the Estérel massif.

For information and booking, ask your hotel concierge.

BOAT TRIPS

No stay on the Mediterranean would be complete without a boat trip or two, and Cannes makes an excellent starting point for some breathtaking excursions out to the Corniche d'Or—a heart-racing experience taking in coves and calanques, tucked away between Saint-Raphaël and Cannes.

CANNES' UNDERWATER ECO-MUSEUM

Don't miss the chance to catch Jason deCaires Taylor's work in an exhibition exclusive to France and the Mediterranean. The artist's sculptures are immersed three to five meters deep—grab a mask and snorkel and dive in for a closer look at the six faces installed underwater, just off Sainte-Marguerite Island.

WATER ACTIVITIES

Explore the depths of the Mediterranean: - Kayaking - Windsurfing - Water-skiing - Paddleboarding - Kite-surfing in Cannes. With so many exciting water sports on offer, pick and mix your perfect line-up.

DIFFICULTY

1 CASINO BARRIÈRE

The casino offers up a slice of pure Cannes glamor just a stone's throw from the iconic Palais des Festivals. Hop on a bike for a breezy cycle through the lively city center, with the lights adding a whole new dimension to the ride come nightfall.

2 PALAIS DES FESTIVALS

This legendary venue with its famous red carpet steps is a must-see along the way. Every year, the center plays host to the one and only Cannes Film Festival, an inimitable international event that draws in the world's biggest names.

3 VIEUX PORT DE CANNES

Cannes' Old Port is a vibrant hotspot all year round, where traditional fishing boats bob alongside glossy yachts. This bike ride takes you along the quays for a chance to soak up the atmosphere as markets, fishermen and terraces jostle for your attention.

4 MUSÉE DES EXPLORATIONS DU MONDE

Hugging the top of Le Suquet is this spell-minding museum that's sure to be a hit with culture vultures of all stripes. Leave your bike at the bottom and wind your way up the old district on foot to take in the mesmerizing collections, ancient architecture and breathtaking sea views.

5 LE SUQUET

It doesn't get much quainter or more authentic than Cannes' old quarter. Park your bike at the bottom of the hill and meander your way up through the narrow cobbled streets. Once you reach the top, catch your breath as you marvel at the breathtaking views over the bay.

6 THE PLAGES DU MIDI BEACHES

Get out of town, where the Plages du Midi beaches stretch for miles on end. A smooth, seamless cycle path runs along the coast for a nice, quiet ride: the perfect location for an easy-breezy cycle to the sound of the waves.

7 LA CROISSETTE

Cannes' most iconic avenue makes for an incredibly pleasant bike ride. Take in La Croisette's palm trees, luxury hotels and sandy beaches as azure sea and elegant architecture stretch for as far as the eye can see. A flat, relaxing route that has been designed specifically with cyclists in mind.

8 PORT CANTO

Less crowded than the Old Port, Port Canto is a haven of tranquility where visitors can meander along the quays and take in the sailboats, or enjoy a break in the nearby gardens. The peaceful cycle path that links this port to the Croisette is one of the best on the coast.
