

Where senior executives and academics meet to lead dynamic change.

Ideal for:

Senior public sector executives (SES 1-3 or equivalent)

Duration

3 weeks

Dates

16 September - 13 November 2026

Format

Blended with intensive residential (Melbourne)

Cost

$29,800 (inc. GST)

An transformational program for executives steering the future of government. An opportunity to turn insight into impact, question legacy systems, and lead with grounded confidence. This program is immersive, demanding, and deeply rewarding – a rare opportunity to step back, widen your lens, and lead with renewed conviction.

What you'll learn

- » Challenge assumptions and test ideas that will have influence.
- » Learn from thinkers shaping public systems worldwide.
- » Apply global insight to Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand.
- » Developing the ability to identify opportunities that transform insights into meaningful impact.

Key benefits

Fresh perspectives

Learn from diverse cultures, disciplines, and peers across Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand. Uncover new approaches to old challenges.

Adaptive thinking

Learn to navigate the shifting demands of modern public leadership and apply practical frameworks to lead through uncertainty and thrive on complexity.

Personal development

Develop greater self-awareness and confidence. Enhance your influence and authenticity as a leader, using practical tools and insights.

Lifelong network

Join ANZSOG's influential alumni of 4,000+ leaders across 40 countries and gain lasting, trusted support plus opportunities for continuous growth.

