

Perk Spend US — 3 Months No Platform Fees

Promotion Terms & Conditions | Effective 14 September 2026

About

These terms govern the Perk Spend “3 Months No Platform Fees” promotion (the “Promotion”), advertised on radio and podcast and available through the official Perk campaign web pages. By signing up through a campaign page you take part in the Promotion and agree to these terms. The promoter is Perk USA Inc., 251 Little Falls Drive, City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, Delaware 19808, USA (“Perk”).

This is a business-only promotional offer, not a prize draw, sweepstakes, contest or game of chance. There are no winners, no draw and no element of luck. Every eligible business that signs up during the Promotion Period and meets the criteria below receives the offer. The Promotion is void where prohibited or restricted by law.

We may amend or withdraw the Promotion only where reasonably necessary due to fraud, technical failure, legal or regulatory requirement, or circumstances outside our reasonable control. Any such change will not materially disadvantage a business that has already signed up, unless required by law.

The offer

Eligible businesses receive a waiver of Perk Spend platform fees for the first 3 months of their paid subscription (the “Offer”), on these conditions:

- The Offer covers platform (licence and subscription) fees only — it does not cover transaction fees, card fees, FX charges, third-party or supplier charges, usage-based fees, professional services or implementation fees, or any taxes.

- The 3-month waiver runs from the start date of the business's first paid Spend subscription.
- To receive the Offer, the business must sign a Perk Spend agreement or order form with Perk. Signing up during the Promotion Period registers eligibility; it does not create a subscription.
- Signing up does not oblige a business to subscribe to or purchase our Spend Module, and does not guarantee that Perk will enter into an agreement with it. Go-live follows Perk's standard onboarding.
- The Offer cannot be combined with any other Perk discount, credit or promotional offer unless we confirm otherwise in writing.

The Offer is non-transferable, has no cash alternative and is provided as-is. The business is responsible for any taxes arising from receipt of the Offer.

Promotion Period

Sign-ups must be submitted through an official Perk campaign page between 14 September 2026 and 31 October 2026 (inclusive). Sign-ups received through any other channel, or outside that window, are not valid. You are responsible for making sure your sign-up is submitted in time.

Who can take part

The Promotion is open only to new corporate customers of Perk Spend in the United States. To be eligible, a business must:

- be a bona fide business, company or other organisation with a place of business in the United States;
- be a new Spend customer — it must not be, and must not previously have been, a Perk Spend customer, and must not hold or have held a paid Spend subscription, trial or existing Spend agreement with Perk or any Perk group company; and

- sign up through an official Perk campaign page during the Promotion Period.

There is a limit of one Offer per company. A “company” means a single legal entity together with its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates, which count as one business for these purposes.

The Promotion is not open to consumers or to individuals acting in a personal capacity, and the Offer is made to a company. It cannot be awarded to, held by or redeemed by an individual. It is not open to sole traders, individual consultants or others signing up on quasi-personal details rather than as a business. It is not open to employees, contractors or immediate family members of any Perk group company.

Signing up on behalf of your company

You may only take part on behalf of a business. By submitting a sign-up, the individual completing it confirms that they:

- are 18 or over;
- are an employee, officer or authorised representative of the business named in the sign-up;
- are submitting on that business’s behalf and not in a personal capacity; and
- are authorised to submit the sign-up on that business’s behalf and to bind it to these terms.

Sign-ups must be made using a corporate email address and must include the name of the business. Sign-ups from free or personal email addresses, or that are not clearly made on behalf of a business, may be rejected or disqualified. We may verify a business’s status and eligibility — including its name, domain and registration details, and whether it is an existing Spend customer — before applying the Offer, and may withhold the Offer where we are not reasonably satisfied.

Your data and publicity

By signing up, you allow us to process the name, business email address and company details you provide in order to administer the Promotion and to contact you about Perk Spend. Further detail on how personal data is processed is at www.perk.com/legal/privacy-policy under "Marketing".

General

Everything in the Promotion, including the Offer, is provided "as is". To the fullest extent permitted by law, Perk is not liable for any loss arising from participation in the Promotion or use of the Offer, and you agree to indemnify Perk against claims arising from your participation. If any provision is found unenforceable, the rest stands; our failure to enforce a term is not a waiver. Where the Promotion is facilitated by a social media or podcast platform, you release that platform from all liability and acknowledge that the Promotion is not sponsored or endorsed by it. Taking part is your full agreement to these terms and to Perk's decisions, which are final.

Governing law

These terms are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, whose courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or related to them..
