

A top-down view of a white tablecloth covered with various food items, including plates of salmon, bread, and small bowls of dips, arranged in a circular pattern. The items are scattered across the table, creating a sense of abundance and variety. The lighting is bright and even, highlighting the textures and colors of the food. The overall composition is clean and minimalist, focusing on the food itself.

VENUES ŌTAUHAHI

Close to the Source

Our food starts in the ground, on the land and in the sea around us, from wide arable plains and an abundant peninsula to rugged high country and a coastline full of life. Each landscape brings its own character, and together they make this region one of the best places to grow, farm, fish, and create. We're fortunate to work with the farmers, growers, fisherman, and producers who know their land and waters, and care for them with skill and respect. Their vegetables, grains, meats, kaimoana, and crafted produce set a tone for everything we create.

By choosing local, we keep our food fresh and in season, it allows us and you to support the community that grows it, and the regional economy that sustains us all. Every dish is a chance to share with each other what Ōtautahi does best. We don't overcomplicate our food, it's honest, thoughtful, and connected to where it comes from. It's simple: respect the land, back our local producers, and cook well.
