MARBLE MOSAIC & NATURAL STONE

Mosaic Hexagone Bottocino

MADE WITH LOVE

The Marble Mosaic of Designtegels.nl comes from the caves of Turkey. The marble that is extracted here are large slabs meant for counter tops or floors. The residual product of this, small pieces or incorrectly sawn pieces, are sawn small into different shapes and placed on mats. Marble Mosaic is therefore not only a residual product but also super durable!

FOR A LIFETIME

Marble is a natural stone and therefore has a lively character and a beautiful pattern. There are various neutral colours available, but we also have special pink, red, yellow and green options. Depending on which batch (and mountain) the marble was sawn from, the colour can differ. Marble can be placed inside and outside, on the floor and on the wall.
