SPORT FINALS

Camogie Shield Final Winners

Our girls qualified for the shield final where they played Coppens NS. The girls displayed great skill, determination and team work which helped them to a 2-2 to 0-1 victory.

Captain, Leni Anglin, proudly accepted the cup on behalf of a brilliant St Joseph's team.

Congratulations girls, we are so proud of you all!

Some of the team do not play camogie for a club but have improved greatly over the past few weeks.

We are delighted for you all.

Well done to this group of girls from 5th and 6th who took part in the Primary Soccer Cup Competition at Clonakilty Sports Complex.

The opposition were Scoil Mhuire, Ballincollig. St Joseph's, unfortunately, ended up on the losing side after a very entertaining game. The final score was 4-2.

St Joseph's led by 1-0 at half time but Scoil Mhuire got four goals on the bounce soon after half time.

St Joseph's rallied to bring it back to 4-2 but ran out of time in the end.

Our girls played their hearts out displaying great skill throughout.

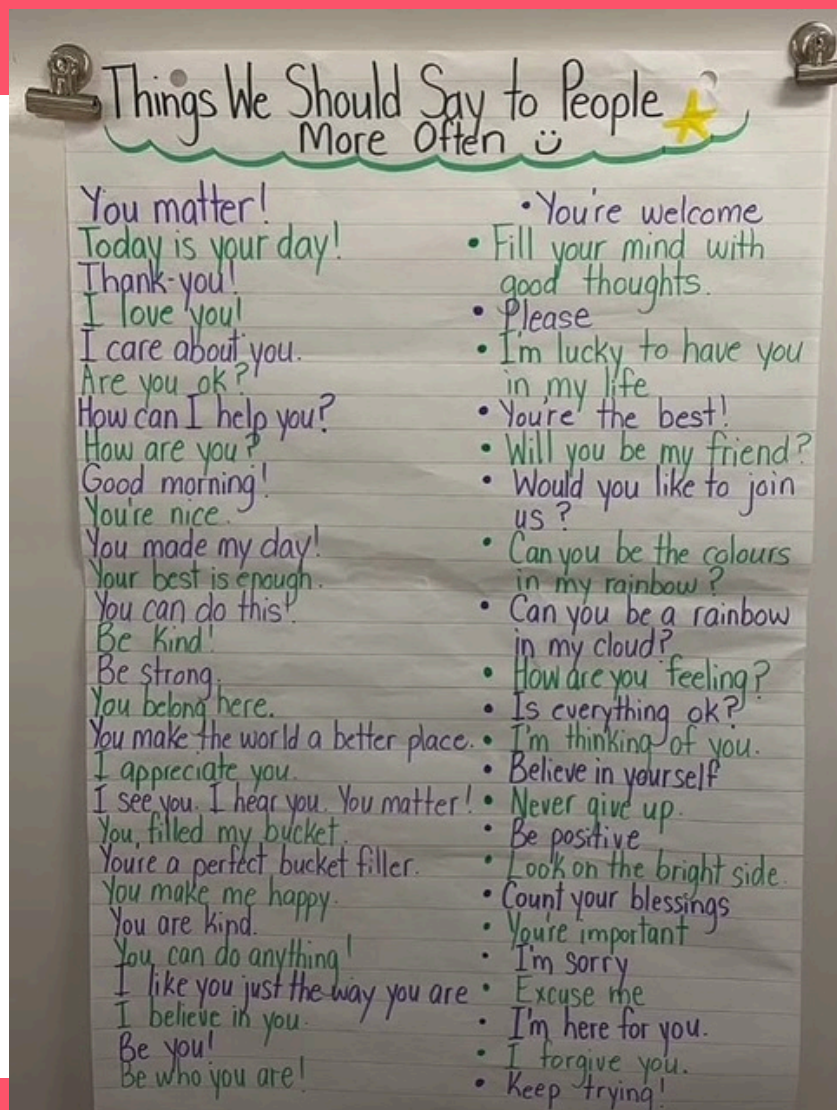

Well done to all!

Soccer Cup Final
