WORLD BOOK DAY 2025

Competition Winners

Here are our World Book Day Competition winners for 2025. The girls had to design bookmarks, write a book review, design a front cover and write a blurb and write a comic. We love seeing and reading all the entries in the corridor!

Paired Reading

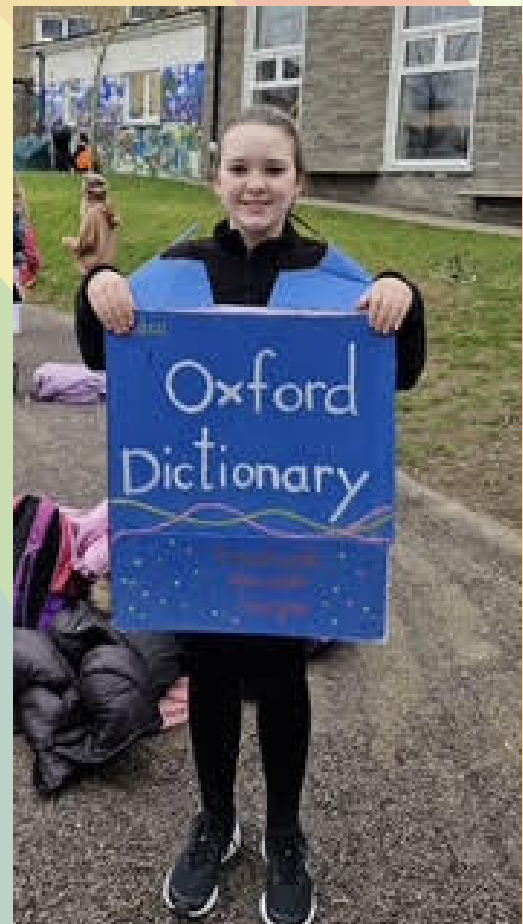

This World Book Day some of the girls in our older classes helped the younger girls with their reading. Junior Infants loved reading with the third class girls!

Making Bookmarks

The 5th class girls were very busy on World Book Day making their own bookmarks using pressed flowers.

WORLD BOOK DAY COSTUMES

We were blown away by all the amazing, creative costumes the girls came up with for World Book Day! Well done to all involved!!

SEACHTAIN NA GAELIGE

The whole school really got into the spirit of Seachtain Na Gaelige this year kicking things off with the Siege of Ennis outside in the sunshine. Thank you to Muinteoirs Bobby and Gillian for all your hard work teaching the steps!

3rd to 6th class took part in our annual Trath na Ceist this Seachtain na Gaelige. Bhí an-spraoi againn!!

The girls also held a Siopa an BÁCÁLA in aid of the Irish Cancer Society raising a huge €301.75!! Go raibh mile maith agat to everyone who baked!

SPORTS AT ST. JOSEPHS

Congratulations and well done to our 6th class pupil, Éala Pattwell who took part in the Primary Game Camogie Selection in Páirc Uí Rinn. We are very proud of you Éala!!!

We were delighted to have Shane from the FAI start soccer lessons with 3rd and 4th class in March. The girls are loving it and looking forward to learning lots of new skills in the coming weeks!

A big shout out to Shauna from 5th class and Molly and Maeve from 4th class who took part in the Irish Minor Schools Swim Championships over the weekend. We are so proud of these three very talented swimmers who have been training hard all year!! Congratulations girls and well done from all here in SJGNS, an amazing achievement!!!

PANCAKE TUESDAY

Yum, yum, yum!! Thank you to The Lunch Bag who provided delicious pancakes to all of our girls on Pancake Tuesday. Some girls added their own toppings, and well done to Junior Infants who decided to make their own pancakes on the day! They were delicious!
