

WU Executive Academy INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY BOARD

The WU Executive Club counts over 7,000 members from more than 100 nations. Its International Advisory Board (IAB) is composed of former students from diverse industries & backgrounds who support the WU Executive Club with strategic advice, community representation, and career development initiatives. They foster networking, lifelong learning, and quality engagement across the global alumni network.

Facts & Figures

Up to 20
members

2

Official
Meetings/Year

WU EA
Alumni/ae

Diverse group of studies & industries

Strategic Advisors

Multipliers to the Community

Purpose & Presence

Mission: Act as strategic advisors to the WU Executive Academy, supporting its growth, values, and global community impact.

Vision: Be a dynamic advisory body that drives engagement and enhances global reputation through strategic insight and leadership.

Responsibilities and Requirements

- › Share ideas, feedback, and contacts; support strategic projects and (further) development initiatives
- › Advocate for the WU EA values, engage in events, and represent WU EA at events, graduation ceremonies, and info sessions
- › Connect with prospects, students and alumni, encourage participation, and share community updates

How the IAB can support YOU

- › Networking: IAB members provide insights and connections
- › Trusted Representation: Their involvement aligns WU EA with industry needs
- › Firsthand Insights: Prospective students learn how WU EA programs work and impact careers
- › Career Support: IAB members share exclusive job offers and resources
- › Mentorship: Alumni act as mentors and key contacts in the community

Get in touch with our IAB members today!

Benefits of Joining the IAB

Personal Growth

Networking Opportunities

Exclusive
Invitations

Co-Shaping
the Club

You are considering a WU EA program, or are already a student or an alumna/us? Reach out to the IAB members on LinkedIn today and get the support you need.

Are you interested in becoming involved in the International Advisory Board? Contact us at wuexecutiveclub@wu.ac.at for further information and application.