(all abilities welcome)

About Herm

Just three miles from Guernsey, Herm is a world apart. A tiny, car-free island where wild coastal paths, soft white-sand beaches and sweeping sea vistas create an atmosphere of deep peace and unhurried simplicity.

With its dramatic cliffs, ever-changing tides and luminous light, Herm offers artists a rare chance to step away from daily life and immerse themselves fully in the natural world. For painters, the island is a dream: endless viewpoints, clear horizons, shifting colours and charming details at every turn. Whether capturing rugged coastline, soft dunes, thriving flora or Herm's abundant birdlife and wildlife, the island's landscapes, from wildflower-strewn paths to the expanse of open sea, provide pure inspiration in every direction.
