CHEF ATTILIO MARRAZZO

Attilio Marrazzo grew up surrounded by the aromas of his mother's cooking and the legacy of his uncle, Chef and President of the Italian Chefs' Federation. From an early age, he developed a passion for excellence that led him to work with Sergio Mei at the Four Seasons in Milan, before moving to France, where he discovered the art of haute gastronomy.

It was alongside Joël Robuchon that he honed his skills, further refining his talent in some of Paris' most prestigious kitchens: Le Pavillon Élysée, La Table, l'Atelier Etoile, and then the George V with Eric Briffard. Double Michelin-starred at Chez Jean and l'Atelier Robuchon, he has now reached the peak of his craft.
