An illustrated talk of houses through the ages, looking at those rich and poor.

Wed May 4th Visit to Arley Hall Free

Wed June 2nd Jubilee Jamboree Free

A social event focussed round the Queen's Jubilee. Red, white and blue dress wear can be worn. There will be quizzes and games around this theme and maybe cakes decorated in red, white and blue.

Wed July 6th David Hollis Wild tales from Myrtle Corner £65 inc travel

An illustrated talk from a freelance wildlife photographer on the birds, mammals and plants that live and thrive on the Wirral peninsula. £65 (includes travel expenses).

Wed Aug 3rd Possibility of a Picnic in the Park

We don't normally have anything but was wondering whether those that are free meet up in a local park – Grosvenor Chester, Castle Park Frodsham, Thursaston Country Park – other venues considered. We bring our own picnic and just sit and chat and/or play garden boules etc. To be discussed nearer the time.

Wed Sept 7th Edward Hilditch (again) Victorian Neston £40

An illustrated talk about this small market town close to where many of our group live. Following the talk there will be an opportunity to have a guided tour by Edward. See below for date.

Tues Sept 20th A guided tour on Neston by Edward Hilditch £40

Please note this will be a Tuesday and probably start at 1pm so we can enjoy tea and cakes in a suitable venue afterwards.

Wed Oct 5th Joanna Williams The Great Miss Lydia Becker £60 inc travel

An illustrated talk about this amazing lady who was an early leader in the suffrage movement plus an amateur scientist.

Wed Nov 2nd Carla Phillips A day in the life of a Viking £35 plus a bit for travel Excellent interactive speaker who I booked to come in November as the Club Council will be coming along.
