EXPERIENCE

My core expertise is in advising Russian-speaking clients on a broad spectrum of legal matters in Switzerland and within the framework of international projects. I offer tailored legal support across key areas including contract drafting and negotiation, real estate transactions, business formation and restructuring, tax and currency control compliance, and succession planning. I regularly coordinate complex, multi-jurisdictional matters in close cooperation with international legal counsel, ensuring seamless alignment and efficiency across legal systems. My practice is distinguished by a strategic, client-centred approach that bridges both cultural and legal frameworks, making me a trusted advisor to Russian-speaking individuals and businesses with interests in Switzerland and beyond.
