EXPERIENCE

With extensive experience gained in multinational corporations, international law firms, and across various industries, I provide strategic legal advice on cross-border transactions and corporate structuring. Backed by a strong academic background and over two decades of international legal practice, I am known for my business-oriented approach and ability to deliver practical, solution-driven legal advice. I am particularly skilled at bridging legal and cultural gaps, assisting clients in navigating complex challenges, and helping them achieve their business objectives.
