EXPERIENCE

I am an attorney specializing in contract law and civil litigation. I have a goal-oriented mindset, a high degree of empathy, and the persistence and perseverance often required in legal matters. Through my experience working with an international clientele, I bring a strong understanding of diverse perspectives and excel at building bridges between differing interests – an asset that proves valuable not only in contract negotiations. A structured and close exchange with my clients is essential to me in order to develop sustainable solutions and to represent your legal interests efficiently and reliably.
